ELYRIA PLANT TO BE MOVED HERE

Bernhard Boiler Company Will Locate in Lima

EMPLOY FORCE OF 100 MEN

Absorbs Lima Steel Casting Company Holdings

Negotiations whereby the plant and entire assets of the Lima Steel Casting company will be taken over by the Bernhard Boiler company of Elyria, have been concluded. M. L. Johnson, of the steel casting company announced Wednesday.

The plant, located on S. Shawneet in the southeast part of the city, is being made ready for activity by the new company. Men are engaged at the plant, making the necessary changes in the brick structure.

The new company, which manufactures the Bernhard triple combustion boiler, a product that has been on the market for over 20 years, will have in its official roster two Lima men who were connected with the Steel Casting company. H. F. Thomas, president of the old company, will be chairman of the board of directors and M. L. Johnson, general manager of the Lima plant, will be secretary and treasurer of the Bernhard Boiler company. J. B. Bernhard, of Elyria, is president and general manager.

Removal of the boiler company from Elyria to Lima will begin at once and it is expected that the plant will be in full operation by the first of June, Johnson stated. The plant will employ from 60 to 100 men and with a heavy demand for the product at this time, due to the building boom throughout the country, officials of the new company anticipate additional manufacturing facilities will be required as the business expands.

INCORPORATED FOR $300,000.
The new company, which is incorporated in the sum of $300,000, has already awarded contracts for further equipment and manufacturing devices needed in the new quarters. Much of the equipment of the old plant will be available, Johnson stated.

The boiler to be manufactured in Lima is put on the market in a wide range of sizes and is suitable for the heating of everything from the smallest house to the largest business concern. It is much used in the heating of offices and public buildings.

Much credit should be given the Board of Commerce for securing the new industry for Lima," Johnson declared. "It was largely thru their efforts it was decided to locate the plant in Lima when the Elyria factory became too small to handle the increased business," he added.

RESCUED AT SEA

Two Men Saved When Vessel Sinks off Florida

KEY WEST, Fla.—(United Press)—Captain Roy Sovey and Joe O'Brien escaped uninjured when their motor cruiser Utopia went down in a heavy gale in the Florida Straits off here.

The survivors, sole passengers on the ship, told a thrilling tale of rescue by the crew of the steamer W. H. Libby when they arrived here today.

The little vessel was dashed about in the wind tossed waves for hours, her holds filling with water, before rescue came. Her engine was put out of commission, and it seemed that she would have gone down with her boat.

A boat from the Libby drew alongside the motor ship and took the men off just as all but the forecastle deck sank beneath the waves.

MISS FONTAINE WITHDRAWS HER PLEA OF NOT GUILTY

NEW YORK.—The action of Evan Burrows Fontaine, Oriental dancer, and her mother, in withdrawing their plea of not guilty to a charge of perjury, does not necessarily mean that they will change their plea to guilty, it was explained today.

The case now stands just where it did before any plea was entered. Meanwhile, attorneys for Miss Fontaine are investigating to ascertain whether the witnesses were legally sworn before they testified before the grand jury which voted the perjury indictments. If it is found they were not so sworn, the attorneys will contend that the indictments were not legal.

Miss Fontaine and her mother were charged with perjury in connection with their million dollar vendetta of promise suit against Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney.

RECEIVERS ASKED.—Appointment of a receiver for the S. S. Seaboard Trust Co. as an injunction against the sale of the Eastern Kentucky and Coal Holdings of the syndicate to the Fordson Coal Co. and the Fordson Coal Co. is determined in a suit filed in federal court here by T. C. Fuller, of Lexington, against Stuyvesant Seaboard, Chicago, trustee, and the Fordson company.

Harding Backs Fight On Primary

INCLUDED IN 1924 CAMPAIGN PLANS

President Expected to Attack System on Western Tour

PROGRAM NOW IN MAKING

Gen. Wood May Enter Race for Nomination

(BY LAWRENCE MARTIN)

AUGUSTA, Ga.—Active campaigns are under way in a number of states against the primary system of choosing delegates to the national convention, as a result of the announcement of President Harding's candidacy for re-election and re-election, according to Republican leaders with the presidential vacation party.

Private word to political lieutenants of the president is that Attorney General Daugherty's announcement that the president would run again has started party workers in many states actively organizing a fight against the primary system. When Mr. Harding makes his tour of the west he is expected to give active support to the campaign.

CAMPAIGN PLANS.
Present indications are that the presidential campaign of 1924 will get under way early and last later than the usual campaign. On his return to Washington next week, the president will hold a series of conferences with party leaders to discuss and lay plans for the western trip and map out the administration program for the next two years.

A contest is under way now within the Republican party to eliminate all opposition to Mr. Harding. His lieutenants are demanding that he shall have a clear road to travel within the party.

Talk is heard that General Leonard Wood, a powerful candidate in the last campaign, may again come to the front in the pending campaign. No foundation for this report could be discovered, except that Wood's 1920 supporters are using his name as a threat for trading purposes.

The president motored today to Alken, S. C., for a golf match and to witness a polo match.

DEPORTATION TO IRELAND FOUGHT

Republican Leader at Cleveland Guarded in Hospital

(Associated Press)

Believing that deportation would result in a free state court-martial, friends of Martin Lavan, said to be a leader of the Irish Republican army, were preparing today to contest proceedings to deport him. They declared they would cite a number of such executions as grounds for keeping Lavan in this country, even though a "technical irregularity" might be discovered in his admission.

Deportation depends on the result of an investigation of circumstances surrounding his entrance to the United States, federal authorities declared. Pending the investigation, Lavan is under guard in a hospital here.

Lavan landed in this country four months ago, suffering with a bayonet wound said to have been sustained while acting as district commander of the Republican army during a battle in County Mayo, Ireland. After a month's stay in New York, he was brought to Cleveland. His wound became so serious that an operation was decided upon last Friday.

Investigation by free state sympathizers into a visit by Mrs. Terence MacSwiney, widow of the lord mayor of Cork, to the hospital is said to have led to Lavan's discovery.

LEGION AUXILIARY IN CONVENTION AT TOLEDO

TOLEDO.—Delegates representing 79 units of the American Legion auxiliary from 24 northwestern Ohio counties are attending a district meeting of the organization here today.

The meeting will be featured by reports of committees, presentation of the colors, allegiance to the flag and will close with the delegates singing the national anthem.

The principal speakers on the program are Mrs. T. H. Halliday, Columbus, department president; Mrs. Thomas J. Maxwell, past state president and Mrs. Lee Moore of Newark, Ohio.

At the conclusion of the session the delegates will stand for one minute in honor of the soldier dead.

HOUSE OF DAVID BRANDED FRAUD

Charges Against Colony Filed by Attorney General

DECLARED TO BE IMMORAL

Backs up Action Demanding Body's Disbandment

LANSING, Mich.—(Associated Press)—Formal charges that the Israelite House of David colony, "a foundation of deceit, immorality and fraud," were filed in the Ingham county (Lansing) circuit court today by Andrew B. Daugherty, attorney general for Michigan.

The charges were filed in support of the quo-warranto proceedings begun in the court yesterday to compel the leaders of the cult to show cause why the organization should not be disbanded.

Today's charges allege that the colony, known as a "kingdom" with Benjamin Purnell, head of the order, as "king." The allegation also is made that the association, which filed articles of incorporation in 1903, as a religious and ecclesiastical association, has usurped its privileges as an organization of this character by means of fraud.

OBJECT OF BODY.
The attorney general alleges the colony "is not and never has been a corporation for religious and ecclesiastical purposes but on the contrary has for its true object the enrichment of Benjamin Purnell and his elevation to the rank of temporal king and the establishment within the state of a kingdom whose king and his subjects, are or eventually shall be, free and independent of the civil power of the state."

John Sterling of Benton Harbor, attorney for the cult, arrived here last night. He said the House of David is ready for any investigation the state may make.

FANTASY PROMISES.
The charges filed by the state today allege that the colony has usurped its franchise rights "by inducing, committing and perpetrating frauds and deceit upon its members—by deluding members into conveying property to the corporation in return for fantastic and absurd promises of immortality and religious and spiritual benefit; by setting up within the state by deception and fraud a temporal kingdom, opposed to the constitution and laws of the state and whose avowed principles would subvert and destroy the government of the state; by inducing and permitting acts of an immoral and unlawful nature under the guise of religious discipline and spiritual ministrations; by inducing and permitting commission of statutory crimes and misdemeanors involving vice and immorality in and about the community commonly known as Shiloh."

The preamble to the charges alleges, among other things, that the colony, under Purnell's direction, has adopted laws of its own, ousting the jurisdiction of the courts of the state.

State officials today said they assumed an order directing the cult leaders to file an answer to the state charges within 15 days would be issued by Circuit Judge Leland Carr, in whose court the charges were introduced.

CLEVELAND FACES CRISIS IN THE GAS SITUATION

CLEVELAND.—City council will meet in special session tonight to consider the crisis created by the East Ohio Gas Company's petition to the state supreme court yesterday, asking that the injunction allowing the company to serve in Cleveland until May 1, be modified to permit it to discontinue service on April 21, when the Marshall ordinance becomes effective.

The Marshall ordinance, which was passed over Mayor Kohler's veto on March 13, repeals the 1912 grant under which the company is operating. It fixes rates at 40 to 75 cents a thousand cubic feet with a minimum monthly charge of 80 cents while the company demands 90 to 75 cents with a charge of $1 for the first 1,000 feet.

FUNERAL OF INFANT.
Funeral services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Rutan, of 310 N. Jamison-av. were held Wednesday at 1:30 p. m., in charge of Rev. Peffer, pastor of Zion Evangelical Lutheran church. Burial in Greenwood cemetery, Allentown.

CHICAGO IS SWEEPED BY DEMOCRATS

Only 13 Council Seats Out of 50 Won by Republicans

DEVER IS ELECTED MAYOR

For Second Largest Plurality in City's History

(Associated Press)

Judge William E. Dever of the superior court swept into the office of mayor yesterday with a plurality of 103,743, the second largest in the city's history, turning the city administration to the Democratic ranks after eight years of Republican rule under Mayor William Hale Thompson. Judge Dever polled 387,961 votes, and Arthur C. Lueder, the Republican candidate, 284,213, William A. Gunnes, Socialist, received 40,841 votes.

In a special congressional election in the second Illinois district Morton D. Hull, Republican, was elected to fill the unexpired term of the late James R. Mann over Barratt O'Hara, Democrat, former lieutenant governor, 56,330 to 42,409.

The Democratic party increased its strength also in the city council, electing thirteen of the twenty aldermen voted for, and at the same time virtually nullified the representation of Mayor Thompson's political machine. Four of the five aldermanic candidates said to have been strong supporters of Mayor Thompson were defeated.

As a result of the election, it was stated only two Thompson supporters remained among the 37 Democrats and 13 Republicans of the new council.

TWO KLANSMEN BEATEN.
EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill.—(Associated Press)—The municipal election here yesterday which roused intense interest owing to reported activities of the Ku Klux Klan resulted in the election of one candidate said to have been endorsed by the Klan and the defeat of two candidates alleged to have had Klan support.

Ralph Cook, the successful candidate, polled the largest number of votes among the eight who ran for city commissioner, four of whom were chosen. August M. Eggmann and the Rev. William R. Evans, understood to have had Klan support, polled light votes.

Two arrests, a slight disturbance between two groups of young men, one of which accused the other of being Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and reports that klanmen paraded in full regalia last night marked the election in which almost all of the 25,000 voters registered cast their ballots. Police prevented the disturbance from developing into violence and said they could find no trace of garbed klanmen.

Mayor M. M. Stephens was re-elected over William J. Vesch by a majority of 2700.

Stanley Conner, 22, of Paris, Ky., a traveling salesman for a Cincinnati concern, shot and killed himself in his room in a hotel here early today. He had prepared to start on a two weeks business trip in West Virginia this morning, and Conner D. C. Handley expressed the belief that extreme nervousness about the trip caused Conner to shoot himself.

REMOVAL OF WOMAN OFFICIAL PROTESTED

TOLEDO.—A letter of protest against the removal of Mrs. May E. Stannard, superintendent of the industrial school at Delaware, is to be sent at once by the League of Women Voters to Governor A. V. Donahay.

A petition asking that Mrs. Stannard be retained as superintendent and signed by women business and political leaders is also being circulated among the women and will be sent to Donahay.

According to Mrs. Frances Rood, former state president of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, Donahay plans to remove Mrs. Stannard and place in that position, a Mr. and Mrs. McNamara.

"The women and women Donahay wants to put back at the industrial school are impossible," Mrs. Rood said. "When I visited the institution in 1920, it reminded me of the institutions of Dickens' time. This move is politics pure and simple. Mrs. Stannard has changed all the bad conditions I found there three years ago."

PASTOR ROUTS HOODED MEN

KLAN HEADQUARTERS SEIZED BY SHERIFF

ATLANTA, Ga.—Sheriff J. I. Lowry of Fulton-co., with a force of deputies early today took charge of the Imperial Palace, headquarters of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, under an order signed by Judge F. D. Thomas, disposing of W. J. Simmons, Imperial emperor, who took charge of the headquarters and the temporary injunction against Imperial Wizard H. W. Evans.

The order signed about 11 o'clock this morning by Judge Thomas, directed Emperor Simmons and the other plaintiffs in the action to appear for a hearing before him this afternoon to show cause why the temporary injunction against Imperial Wizard Evans and the other officials of the Klan should not be dismissed.

BACK BROKEN, MAN LIVES 2 YEARS

Fall from Bridge Finally Fatal to Harold W. Fisher

Harold W. Fisher, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt E. Fisher, 310 N. McDonald-st., died early Wednesday morning from injuries received over two years ago, when he fell from a foot bridge at the Lima reservoir, a distance of 12 feet. Fisher attempted to ride a bicycle across a yard wide bridge constructed over a concrete sewer conduit. The handle bar struck the bridge railing, throwing him on his back, which X-ray examinations disclosed was broken.

Prior to that time he was employed by his father, former county recorder, and later was a bookkeeper for the Buckeye Pipe Line company. Surviving besides his parents are a widow and one daughter, Elizabeth, also two sisters, Grace and Margaret Fisher, both of Lima. Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the residence, interment in Woodlawn cemetery.

CHARGE IS DENIED

Contractor Pleads Not Guilty to Embezzlement

Benjamin Schmidt, 50, of 319 S. McDonald-st., electrical contractor, pleaded not guilty to a charge of embezzlement Wednesday when arraigned before Judge Jackson in criminal court.

Schmidt was arrested late Tuesday after an affidavit was filed by I. E. Wagner, 308 W. Spring-st., charging that he had used $30 which Wagner claims belongs to him.

Schmidt was released on $100, but when arraigned the bond was cancelled and he was released on his own recognizance. The trial was set for April 12 at 1:30 p. m.

It is understood that the case involves a third party who is alleged to have owed Schmidt money. It was this money which Schmidt says he didn't pay over to Wagner, as he felt it belonged to him on the other debt.

Warrants Issued Following Notice to Delinquents

CAMPAIGN IS NATION-WIDE

Orders Forwarded to Revenue Collectors in all Cities

(BY WILLIAM J. LOSEY)

WASHINGTON.—(United Press)—A nation-wide drive against tax dodgers has been started by the federal government. It was announced at the bureau of internal revenue of the treasury department today.

Thousands of the so-called "warrants of distraint" will be issued in cities throughout the country in a gigantic effort to force the payment of all back taxes due the government.

These warrants call for the seizure and sale of the property of all delinquent taxpayers and tax dodgers.

FIRST WARRANTS.
The first move of the federal government in the drive was made at Kansas City where 500 of the distraint warrants were issued. The warrants will be issued in other cities just as rapidly as the clerical forces of the collectors' office can prepare the necessary papers.

Orders for the concentrated movement on the tax delinquents have been issued to all federal tax collectors. The nation-wide drive is part of the internal revenue bureau's campaign to collect a record-breaking amount of back taxes this year. It is hoped that in this manner, the government will be able to swell from $200,000,000 to $300,000,000, SPECIAL PROVISION.

The work is being pushed because the status of limitations is making it impossible for the government to take legal action against tax collectors of the year 1917, when war profits were large.

The present act of distraint, used by the government against the delinquents, is a special provision of the federal revenue laws.

After two formal ten-day notices to the taxpayer, the warrant can be issued. It provides for the sale of all "goods, chattels and effects" of the delinquent with certain exceptions. The amount of the tax with the amount of the tax with the rate of 12 per cent per annum added.

JUST KISSED, SAY MANY SPOONERS.
Questionnaire Sent to Married Women Answered

NEW YORK.—(United Press)—The purpose of this questionnaire is to obtain information on a subject of great interest and to obtain it from perfectly normal people," Dr. Katherine E. Davis, general secretary of the bureau, told the United Press today.

Out of 1,000 married women who answered a questionnaire sent out by the bureau, covering topics ranging all the way from the effects of spooning to the practice of birth control, 873 said they were happy. The questionnaire goes into intimate phases of life, and was mailed to 5,000 married and single women, most of them college graduates or in college.

The purpose of this questionnaire is to obtain information on a subject of great interest and to obtain it from perfectly normal people," Dr. Katherine E. Davis, general secretary of the bureau, told the United Press today.

"Heretofore, such statistics have been available only from abnormal people. There is great interest in sex education, and before any attempt can be made to give intelligent instruction in sex matters we must know just what the sex problems of the young are, what their stumbling blocks are. In a scientific manner, we intend to collect and collate this information."

BIRTH CONTROL.
Seventy-four per cent of the married women admitted the practice of birth control. Health was the motive in 171 cases; economic reasons in 156; only 25 did not care for children and more than 100 others were actuated by a combination of health and economic reasons.

Courtslip ardor is not necessarily an indication of marital happiness, the board found in its digest of replies on spooning. Forty-one per cent happily married women disclaimed spooning before marriage. 22 per cent confined their spooning to their fiancés and 37 per cent admitted promiscuous spooning.

SPOONING ANSWERS.
Spoonings answers included a number disclaiming "going too far," others "just kissed," and still others admitting "both hugging and kissing."

Eight pages of questions comprise the questionnaire, and the following are typical of the spooning phases: "How old were you when you first began to spoon?"

"What effect, as you estimate it, now, did spooning have upon the quality of your character?"

"Did you indulge with one or more young men in the intimacies usually embraced in the term of spooning?"

"If so, how far did you go in spooning?"

The bureau was established by John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

TWO MEN, FINED, WOMAN RELEASED FROM CHARGE

Albert Straight, N. West-st., and William Burkett, Bellefontaine-av., were fined $10 each and sentenced to serve ten days in jail by Judge Jackson in criminal court Wednesday, when found guilty of disorderly conduct.

Eleanor DeWitt, High and Central-av., a relative of the two men, was also charged with disorderly conduct, but when she explained that she became excited and struck the men because she thought they cursed her mother, she was released. Evidence showed the two men were intoxicated and disorderly.

SEWER COST MAY BE TAX AFFAIR.
Realtors Propose Levying Expense on all Property

Efforts to place the cost of installing trunk line sewers estimated at $2,500,000, on the general tax duplicate instead of raising the money by assessment against benefited property, will be made by the Lima Realtors' association.

Members of the association adopted a report Tuesday night presented by the committee which investigated the method of payment and steps will be taken to follow the committee's recommendations, it is stated.

The report declares "it is impossible from a practical standpoint to fix with definiteness and certainty the amount of benefits derived from this improvement on the various classes of property proposed to be assessed."

"Present and potential benefits are so vague and indefinite that it would require the wisdom of a Solomon, assisted by the Lord, to make a fair and equitable distribution of the costs."

Other objections made by the report are that the assessment on a lot worth $500 would be the same as on a lot worth $5,000, if the lot were of the same dimensions, and that the property taken into the city after the installation of the sewers would enjoy all the benefits and bear none of the cost.

According to the report, this is the first time in the history of Lima it has been attempted to assess the cost of trunk line sewers on benefited areas. This, it is claimed, is unfair because those who already are paying the cost of trunk sewers which were paid for by general taxation, were not assessed.

"That this board take such steps if at all possible to place the cost and expense of these improvements on the general tax duplicate where they will be levied over the city as a whole."

Efforts will be made by realtors to obtain the sum from the board of commerce, the business clubs and other civic organizations to back the plan.

City officials are reported in favor of the plan, but the legality of taxing funds derived from general taxation is in question.

Any action the city or county may take toward assessing a responsibility of property owners will be backed by realtors, according to the committee's report.

The committee's report members believe that city realtors' out county realtors would be in a position to be assessed.

TEST READY IN CITY HALL SALE

Must be Filed Before Wednesday Midnight

3000 SIGNATURES NEEDED

Promoters Believe Total Will be Attained

Petitions circulated in an effort to force the city commissioners to repeal an ordinance which proposes to sell the City building, must be filed with Frank H. Hume, city clerk, before midnight Wednesday.

Clarence C. Miller, legal advisor of the citizens committee, declared at noon Wednesday the petitions will be filed before the time limit expires.

The number of signatures, he admitted, may fall far short of predictions expressed earlier in the fight.

"I believe, however," he said, "that we shall have enough to force the commission to act. There are hundreds of voters in the city whom we could not reach in so short a time."

Petitions ready for filing were being brought in by those circulating them Wednesday. Thirteen petitions turned over to Miller for filing at noon Wednesday contain approximately 300 names.

MILLER'S FORECAST

There are at least 23 petitions which are expected to be brought in during the afternoon. A majority of them will have more names than those brought in during the morning, Miller said.

"If we have 3,000 names," Miller said, "we will have enough."

There are between 19,000 and 20,000 registered voters in the city. A. J. Morris, clerk of the board of elections declared. The petitioners must have 15 percent of the number, to make their complaint effective. Manager C. A. Bingham declared at noon Wednesday he knew of no reason why the city officers should be kept open until midnight to accommodate the petitioners.

"We close at five regularly," he said. "There has been no resolution passed for keeping open."

ROTARY MEET TO BE HELD HERE

Lima Gets 1924 Conference of 21st District

The 1924 conference of the 21st district of Rotary clubs will meet in Lima, according to T. E. Thompson, who returned from the conference at Akron Wednesday morning.

Harry Stirling extended the invitation for the conference in behalf of Lima. About 20 Lima members attended the Akron meeting.

More than 1,000 Rotarians will be the guests of the local Rotary club when the conference is held here early in April next year. The 21st district includes Toledo, Sandusky, Findlay, East Liverpool, Canton and Akron.

Harry Bentley, of Lima, was on Tuesday night's program at Akron.

EXPANSION PLANNED BY MICHAEL CLOTHING CO

Expansion plans of the Michael Clothing company for changes after May 1 will be completed the latter part of April, according to N. L. Michael, who has just returned from Detroit, Pa., where he had been since January.

The company will remain in the present opera house block, it was said, but extensive remodeling will be undertaken late in the year.

Architects have gone over the floor of the opera house building and have submitted plans for remodeling much of it, it was said.

Michael company's floor space probably be extended to include space in the building.

PROBE DEMANDED BY DONAHEY

Sends Message to Senate on Utilities Squabble

ANSWERS KRYDER CHARGE

Denies Phone Company Influence in Hopkins' Appointment

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Governor Donahey this afternoon sent a special message to the state senate requesting a "searching legislative investigation" of his appointment of W. A. Hopkins, Democrat, of Cincinnati, to be a member of the state utilities commission to succeed Charles Marshall.

The message denied that the governor was influenced in any way by the Ohio Bell Telephone Company in appointing Mr. Hopkins. The message again requested action on Mr. Hopkins' confirmation.

Referring to the statement of Majority Floor Leader Kryder yesterday that Mr. Hopkins had been appointed at the behest of "one of the meanest monopolies in the state," the governor said that Kryder was "hiding behind a cloak of immunity" which is provided by the constitution since speeches of members of the general assembly shall not be questioned elsewhere.

ONLY REDRESS

"Under the circumstances," the chief executive said, "the only redress that Mr. Hopkins may have is such as the senate is willing to give him. It is now a matter of fair play on the part of the senate. The people of Ohio have a right to know the truth."

Following the reading of the message in the senate, Mr. Kryder smilingly announced that he didn't know he was "hiding behind a cloak of immunity," and on his motion the message was referred to the rules committee.

Senator George H. Bender, Republican, of Cleveland, after declaring that the governor had refused to support his (Bender's) bill to abolish the utilities commission, charged that the chief executive was "grand-standing" in his request for the resignation of the two Republican members of the commission last week and said that he was "sick and tired of this sort of procedure."

In requesting the investigation of Hopkins' appointment, the governor said that it should be made "if the senate had any sense of fairness." He explained that the appointment was unsolicited, he said, and "the truth of my statement apparently is challenged by the Republican leader in the senate." He asked that the investigation be "formal and official" with sworn witnesses testifying "in order that there may be an end to the circulation of alleged rumors spread broadcast from the floor of the senate without investigation."

The governor pointed out that Messrs. Maulair and Poor of the commission had refused to resign and that if the senate refused to confirm Hopkins, he was at a loss to know how to make the commission "function properly" and if the senate would not cooperate with him, he recommended abolishment of the commission.

BABY-EYED MISS TO RULE AGAIN

Vamp, Bobbed-Hair Flapper Goes to the Discard

NEW FASHIONS ARE AT HAND

Noted Musical Comedy Producer Paints New Beauty's Picture

(BY ROY GIBBONS)

CHICAGO. — (Special.) — We're hit the depression peak in feminine loveliness and style. Well, then, to the rebound!

Say goodbye to the vamp, the bobbed-haired flapper and the "new woman." The lot of them, with their swaggers, slinks and fags are due for the gas.

For girls, like clothes, are soon to be evolved into some startling new fashions.

On her way, shortly to be taken to the public house and embraced as ruling favorite, is the baby-eyed, demure little miss of "Orphan Annie" fame, destined to rule as successfully as she did 50 years ago, over the enraptured hearts of an adoring retinue of swains.

Such is the picture painted by Ernie Young, nationally famed musical comedy producer here.

Backed by 25 years of theatrical experience during which he has bled and fired over 100,000 ladies of the chorus, Young predicts that the 50-year cycle in feminine beauty and style once more has started to swing.

SWING IS STARTED

With ear to the ground listening to what theater-goers think and say, Young has read their verdict yet unspoken and translated it into action during the past month by firing all blondes, redheads and others at his theaters whose tresses have been topped.

Likewise, his official air has fallen upon ladies in his employ given to quaffing from forbidden bottles.

"You're thru," he tells them. "I'm sorry, but the public has spoken. Go out and learn how to get along without rouge. Forget your crazy methods of living and get back some of the natural bloom and sweetness that goes with real femininity."

"Do that and I'll talk to you. But until then stay away. You jazz babies are putting a stamp upon yourselves that the public doesn't want to see any longer. Folks are tired of the flapper. Start acting like your mothers did."

THEY'LL BE TALKING, the new-style girl will be about five feet seven inches tall. She will be decidedly brunette, push the cosmetic dealers into bankruptcy, and be one of the homey kind, fond of her knitting, with only one love for one man.

"The change is bound to come," says Young. "Styles in girls change about every 50 years. It's like a circle. The flapper rage we're just passing out of represents the final turn. From now on we'll be getting back to the point from which girls styles started."

"I'm making changes in my various theaters and road shows to conform with what's going to take place. In another two years the flapper won't dare show her head outside the house. Why? Because the world's nerves are aching from excitement."

"Slow music and plenty of flowers is the order of the day. Life—not liveliness—is what is wanted now. Everything is going to become normal. And so are our women."

"There are too many 12- and 14-year-old babies running loose nowadays masquerading as matured women of 30 and above. And too many women of 30 and 40 masquerading as babies of 18."

Young holds out great hopes for the new-style girl. She'll be in our midst before we know it, he says. Her manner will be spiritual and her slightest wish will be the signal for service from all men at hand.

VESSELS COLLIDE

American Destroyer and British Cruiser in Crash

LONDON. — (Associated Press) — The American destroyer Fox collided with the British light cruiser Ceres at the entrance to the Bosphorus yesterday, according to advices received from Constantinople today by Lloyds. Both vessels, the report said, were badly damaged. The strong current was held responsible for the accident.

The British admiralty this afternoon confirmed Lloyd's advices that the Fox and Ceres had been in collision but said it understood that the damage to the Ceres was comparatively slight and that no lives were lost.

DONAHEY-HERRICK ROW WILL GO TO HIGH COURT

COLUMBUS — The controversy between Governor Donahey and Director of Highways Herrick is to be carried before the state supreme court today, according to Joseph McGhee, state legal adviser.

McGhee announced that he would question the authority of W. E. Baker, Donahey's finance director, to hold up road contracts under provisions of the reorganization act, and on behalf of Oather M. Junk, Chillicothe road contractor, would seek to mandamus Baker to show cause why he had held up Junk's contract for erection of the Jackson-Oak Hill road in Jackson-co.

Thru Baker, Governor Donahey has been refusing to approve contracts let by Herrick, a survivor of the Davis administration, declaring that high-priced material was unnecessary. Because of the government, the highway department has announced that it will call for no more bids.

MORE RAIN IS DAY'S FORECAST

One can't blame Ted for running on a day like Wednesday, for the rain was surely disagreeable, but we seem to be in for it for a few days at least. The weather prophet says there will be rain in the southern part of the state and rain or snow in the north. Colder weather is predicted except near Lake Erie. Thursday it is predicted that conditions will be cloudy, with probable rain or snow.

As if that wasn't enough to produce worry, some bird up in Canada comes forth with the outrageous statement that there will not be any summer weather this year. He claims it will be cold and disagreeable all during the summer months.

Just for that I hope it will be weather in his home town, but we hope it doesn't hit this part of the country.

Maybe the weather man is sore at the New York Yankees and wants to make it nice for the Mud Hens out at the ball park next week. At the present rate it will require mud hens to get around on any kind of a baseball diamond.

WIDOW IS GIVEN HARPER ESTATE

Will of Late Lima Financier Probated Wednesday

Miss Rose Fisher Harper, 1021 W. High-st., will inherit the entire estate of her husband, William H. Harper, under the terms of his will offered for probate before Judge J. H. Hamilton, Wednesday.

The document was probated and Mrs. Harper made her election at the same time. She is the beneficiary of all property, real and personal.

The decedent nominated his wife to act as executrix of the estate. No estimate as to the value of the property is given under the will, which was signed September 17, 1923.

Harper died in Trinidad, Colorado, recently. He was enroute to Lima from Phoenix, Arizona, where he and Mrs. Harper had been spending the winter. He was taken ill on the train and was removed to a hospital on arriving at Trinidad.

The decedent is owner of the Harper-bldg corner of North and Main-sts, and vice-president of the Elmer D. Welby company. He owned considerable other Lima real estate, besides interests in Indiana.

CLINIC PLANNED

State Medical Body President to Give Lecture Here

More than 150 physicians are expected to attend an all-day clinic to be conducted by the staff of St. Rita's hospital, April 17.

Dr. Robert Carothers, orthopedist, president of the Ohio State Medical association, will conduct a surgical clinic at 4:30 p. m. and deliver a lecture on bone and joint diseases to members of the staff and visiting physicians.

A banquet will be served at the hospital at 6:30 p. m. and at 8:30 Dr. Carothers will deliver a lecture before the Allen-co Medical association and visiting physicians and surgeons.

My! King Tut And Terp Should See Lima Dancing These Days!

Tripping the Light Fantastic Has Many Devotees

MANIA SWINGS HEFTY BLOW

Even the Policemen Take to it as Recreation

(BY FRANKLIN DOAN)

In those days when art was all the rage and dancing was a real classic, there lived a sweet young girl named Terpsichore. She danced and flitted about just like a butterfly and was a typical wood nymph.

That was a long time ago and her influence seems to be depreciating very rapidly. In a month or so they might be trying to decide whether or not Tut and Terp danced together, but she probably lived before Tut's time.

However, Tut was a graceful dancer and the reason why they found him turned upside down in his casket was because he may have been thinking of the rapid dancing they do in Lima these days.

But Lima people do not care whether Tut and Terp were graceful dancers or not.

Limaites believe that originality is the watchword and if that good-looking dame, Terpsichore, would hang up her butterfly veil in Lima for a couple of weeks she would not even recognize the art which she invented.

According to the Lima dance hall proprietors, the dancing mania has swung a hefty blow in Lima's direction. Some nights there are as many as three dances in Lima and all of them are well patronized.

Lima young fellows like the jazz artist in vogueville, as it is called, for their turnout for all the new acts. Seeing them once, they step out and repeat for the benefit of their friends.

And it seems that there are quite a few of the young men who do a pretty mean job of imitating.

Some of the eastern dancing fads fresh from "New York" are tried temporarily by the locals, but their enthusiasm in that line is very short-lived. The King Tut dance had a night's popularity and was buried soon after as is true of many other fads.

Many of the older folks are not quite so taken up with game. Naturally their limbs would not respond as nobly to the tinkling tunes, but they can sit and remember the old days, and then some of the old timers speculate on the days when they were boys. The barn dance is as dead as a door nail, but my what fun they used to have!

Home dancing is quite popular and the rugs come up quite often for a few rounds of "sparring." Some of the reformers have sweet and harmonious ideas as the extreme harm in the dance, especially to the younger folk.

Many health experts recommend dancing as a fine way to keep in condition.

One of our high school friends declares that dancing is awful, but we rather doubt the seriousness of his statement.

Most everyone trips the light fantastic. Chief of Police T. A. Lanker and his bunch of bluecoated guardians are having a little dance to-morrow evening, to which their friends are invited. If they believe in dancing, it surely must be all right. The big thing to-day is "meet your friends at the policeman's ball."

But let the couple downstairs think what they want about dancing and let old Tut reform it if he will, but "on with the dance and let joy be unconfined!"

U. S. OFFICIALS NAMED IN SUIT

Conspiracy Charged in Aeroplane Company's Complaint

$51,510,000 IS DEMANDED

Action Taken Against 27 Corporations and 38 Individuals

WASHINGTON. — (Associated Press.) — Alleging conspiracy to destroy his business, James V. Martin of the Martin Aeroplane Factory, Long Island, filed suit under the Clayton act here today to recover $51,510,000 from the Manufacturers' Aircraft Association Inc., twenty-seven other corporations, and thirty-eight individuals.

The plaintiff declared his business had been damaged to the extent of $17,000,000 and under the Clayton law he claimed triple damages plus an attorney's fee of $510,000.

He charged that the defendant corporations had conspired to monopolize the aircraft trade and told the court that whereas he had worked as a contemporary of the Wright Brothers and Glenn H. Curtiss and had invented indispensable parts of present day aeroplanes, none of the defendants had invented any aeroplane or aeroplane device.

In furtherance of the alleged conspiracy he charged the defendants had shandered him, burned his planes, lied about his accomplishments, destroyed government reports commending his devices and even made plans against his life. The result, he declared, was to bring about failure of his business in England, Canada and France.

Among the individual defendants named were Benedict Crowell, former assistant secretary of war; Howard E. Coffin; Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service; Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, director of naval aviation service; Sydney D. Watson, Detroit; Edward A. Deeds, Harold Z. Talbot, Jr. and Charles F. Kettering, all of Dayton; Jesse G. Vincent, William B. Stout, both of Detroit; Richard P. Hoye, Henry M. Crane, Benjamin F. Castle, George H. Houston, Clement M. Keys, all of New York City; Horace M. Hickman, chief of the information group of the army air service; Frank H. Russell, vice president of the Curtiss company; Commanders Hunsacker and Krauss, U. S. N.; Thurman H. Baue, E. D. Schacke, both of Dayton; Lester D. Gardner, Caleb S. Bragg, John K. Robinson Jr., Samuel S. Bradley, James A. Blair Jr., Grover C. Loening, Albert B. Loening, all of New York City; Delos C. Emons, Dayton; Fred B. Rentschler, Paterson, N. J.; William B. Sehor, East Greenwich, R. I.; Ingels M. Uppercu, Keyport, N. J.; Roy D. Chaffin, Detroit; Major R. H. Young, U. S. A. Howard C. Blood, Detroit and William D. Gilmore and R. H. Fleet, both of Washington, D. C.

The corporations named include the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce, organized at Washington; Curtiss Aeroplane and Motor Company of New York; Dayton Airplane Company; Engel Aircraft Company of Ohio; Fisher Body Corporation, Detroit; Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, Akron; Glenn L. Martin Company, Cleveland and the Packard Motor Car Company, Detroit.

12 ARE KILLED IN LIQUOR RAIDS

Toll of Enforcement for Last Six Months Reported

BIG CAPTURES ARE MADE

6,742,341 Gallons of Booze Included in Booty

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—The boot of prohibition enforcement, piled up at the cost of human life, swelled to enormous figures in the last six months of 1922, complete data for the period obtained by the United Press today revealed.

The grand total, comprising 6,742,341 gallons of liquor mash, 77,873 pieces of apparatus, 2,211 automobiles and 87 boats and launches is valued by federal prohibition bureau at $8,878,776.

In its seizure, 12 agents were killed and 33 others were maimed. The incidental cost of making the captures, aside from human life, is placed by the bureau at $43,686.83.

Thus, for the first six months of its fiscal year, the bureau's forces took and forfeited to the government property and liquor valued at $9,500,000 for the entire 12 months period.

SUMMARY OF WORK
A statistical summary of the work of the six months follows:

Arrests 24,253.
Seizures: Distilleries 5,311.
Still 7,180.
Still worms 5,583.
Spills 223,414 gallons.
Malt liquor 2,359,149 gallons.
Wine 367,978 gallons.
Cider 42,703 gallons.
Mash 3,682,868 gallons.
Pomace 55,408 gallons.
Fermenters 61,599.
Automobiles 2,211.
Boats and launches 87.
Appraised value of apparatus and liquors $8,811,627.21.
Appraised value of automobiles $1,100,100.55.
Appraised value of boats and launches $777,150.

Fully two thirds of all the seizures, except automobiles and boats, have been destroyed by order of federal authorities after conviction of the law breakers in the courts. The remainder awaits trial of the persons arrested before destruction.

MOTHER SLAIN; STUDENT HELD

19-Year Old Girl Killed; Boy Accused of Shooting

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich.—(Special)—Love most commonly appears in the guise of an inspiress, a creator, an upbuilder. But, less often, it takes on the form of a destroyer and leaves ruin and wreckage behind it.

It played the latter part here and left in its wake:

A 19-year old mother, Mrs. Thelma Beyer, dead from a pistol shot. A high school senior, Filmore Heikkila, facing a manslaughter charge.

An 18-months-old baby, waiting for its dead mother.

The story:

When Randall Beyer was 18 and Thelma Brent, 16, the twins ran away to Windsor, Ont., and were wed. This met with objection by Beyer's parents.

They induced him to go to Minnesota. Then it was sought to bring about a divorce between him and his young wife. Meanwhile, Thelma became a mother.

Thelma wasn't over-eggs for a divorce—until, say police, she met Filmore Heikkila, handsome and dashing high school athlete. They became friends.

One day Heikkila came to call. Those in an adjoining room heard a shot. They rushed in to find Thelma dead with a bullet through her head. "It was an accident," Heikkila told police later. "I was showing Thelma my new gun and it exploded. I wouldn't have killed her. You know I wouldn't."

Nevertheless, the lad will have to answer a manslaughter charge. And Thelma's baby is motherless.

WAGE BODY TO BE NAMED APRIL 27

Minimum Pay Probers Provided in Ohio Legislation

SENATE IN BOARD WRANGLE

Action on Donahay's Utilities Appointment - Promised

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press)—Completion of the membership of the legislative committee which will make a survey of the question of minimum wages for women and children in industry as provided by the Burck resolution which yesterday was adopted by the house of representatives, will await the return of the legislature from its recess, April 27.

The senate members of the committee were designated by the resolution. Speaker Griswold, who is to appoint the house members, stated that he will not make his selection until after the recess.

Representatives whose names have been mentioned as possible appointees of the committee are Mrs. C. J. Ott, of Youngstown, and Samuel I. Lipp of Cincinnati. Republicans No name has yet been mentioned from the minority membership. Senate members of the committee are Frank B. Burch of Akron, author of the resolution, and Mrs. Nettie B. Loughead, of Cincinnati, Republicans, and Earl E. Ferguson of Van Wert, Democrat.

APPROPRIATION STANDS
The committee is to make its report with recommendations to the next regular session of the assembly convenes in January, 1925.

Efforts of minority members to strike out the appropriation of $5,000 provided for the committee's use were futile.

Opposition to the resolution, lead by Minority Leader Atkinson of Franklin, was based chiefly on the ground that it was a subterfuge of the senate to keep from enacting a minimum wage law. This was denied by its supporters who contended that the resolution had been passed in good faith and that the senate had acted upon it in good faith. Wisconsin Republicans voted with the Democrats against the resolution which was adopted by a vote of 70 to 45. One Democrat, Kesch of Summit, was not recorded as voting.

While the house was wrestling with the minimum wage question the senate was indulging in a racket over the question of whether the rules committee should be instructed to act either favorably or unfavorably on the appointment of William A. Hopkins, Democrat of Cincinnati, as a member of the state public utilities commission to succeed Charles C. Marshall, Democrat of Sidney. The motion which was made by Senator J. F. Burke of Elyria, was defeated by a vote of 11 yes to 19 no. Majority Leader Kryder of Henry-co, stated that the committee would report on the Hopkins appointment before the recess.

During discussion of the Burke motion, Senator Kryder declared that it had been reported that Hopkins was the choice of one of the "meanest utility monopolies in the state" that the Representative of that monopoly had said that Hopkins was practically my choice in this matter.

To the demand of Senator Garver, of Holmes county to know the name of the "monopoly" and also of its representative who was alleged to have made the statement, Senator Kryder replied that the "monopoly" was the Bell Telephone Company and that its representative was Joseph W. Heintzman of Cincinnati.

Urging adoption of his motion, Senator Burke declared that the senate owed it to the governor, the state and the people to act on Hopkins' appointment and state whether it considered him suited for the position. "If he is not the right man, let us say so," Burke said.

Lima Lady is Gaining Daily Since She Took the Plant Juice Medicine

CROWDS CALL AT HUNTER'S

"I can truthfully recommend your Plant Juice" as a wonderful medicine for it surely helped me," said Mrs. M. Lybold, of 220 East Third street, Lima, while talking with The Plant Juice Man recently at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, where large crowds of people are calling daily. Mrs. Lybold is a popular and well known Lima lady, having friends in all parts of the city.

"For months I had suffered with terrible gas in my stomach and bloating spells which would affect my heart and cause me to become short of breath," Mrs. Lybold continued. "I was constipated and had had headaches and I dared not eat anything except the lightest of foods. I could not sleep right and got so weak I could hardly do my work. In fact I was in poor condition in general and my system was all run down."

"Finally, I decided to try your Plant Juice medicine and I began to improve from the first. I can eat foods now that I had not been able to eat for a long time before and I do not suffer from the bloating in my stomach anymore. I rarely have pain in my head now. I sleep just fine; am gaining in strength every day and am able to do my own work."

"I think your Plant Juice is a wonderful medicine and can truthfully recommend it as such."

Hundreds of weak, sick, discouraged men and women have taken on new hope and courage now that the Plant Juice has demonstrated its efficacy in so many surprising cases in Lima and vicinity. They are calling daily in large crowds to see The Plant Juice Man and hear about this medicine that is made from the juices of medicinal plant life. Already, Plant Juice has proved beneficial in several thousand cases in this section.

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Plant Juice is sold also in Lima at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.—Adv.

AINING THE UNFORTUNATE

THERE is probably no greater punishment for mankind as a general rule than idle hands. One cannot help but feel sorry for men and women confined in penal institutions, with nothing to keep them engaged, either mentally or physically. No worse torture could be devised for those who are naturally active and are in full possession of their mental faculties.

The same thing is true, altho perhaps to a lesser extent, among those unfortunate whose mentality is not normal, but who are not altogether incompetent. Dr. Charles Clark, superintendent of the Lima state hospital for criminal insane, in addition to affording medical, electrical and hygienic treatment for his large number of wards, and providing everything possible to contribute to their physical and mental well-being, is also giving them the opportunity to busy their hands and minds in useful work.

Dr. Clark has fought continuously for hospital betterment since he has been in charge of the local institution. Making a study of his patients, he realizes there is nothing that will help more in improving their condition than keeping them busy. The results are amazing, even to alienists. Altho mentally broken and partially incompetent, some of the patients display an uncanny ability along certain lines.

It is for the development of opportunities for prisoners along the lines for which they show an inclination that Dr. Clark is constantly fighting. From the humane standpoint, commendation is due to the men and women at the state hospital who are helping prisoners there to useful occupation.

In addition, they are afforded the opportunity to become wage earners, helping themselves or perhaps their dependents who are robbed of their aid, due to their unfortunate condition. The state owes to its wards every possible assistance that will help in restoring them to a normal state.

YOUR DOUBLE

HAVE you ever met your double? Somewhere, walking the earth at this very moment, is a person who is such an exact duplicate of you that, brought together, few could tell you apart. Occasionally your attention is called to the Law of Duplicates, when newspapers discover and print pictures of the doubles of famous politicians, movie stars and so on.

You, of course, have had the experience of a stranger mistaking you for some one living at a distance. Sometimes the resemblance is so striking that the stranger thinks you are joshing when you inform him that he is mistaken.

The real you—that mysterious and indefinable inner something that includes thought and character and emotion—is never duplicated exactly, tho occasionally each of us meets a person whose viewpoint is so strikingly similar to ours that it bewilders us.

AN extraordinary case of mistaken identity was exposed the other day in England. Arthur Collins, arrested by Scotland Yard detectives on the charge of being an army deserter, was found to be the double of the man wanted.

He even had the same name, lived on the same street, followed the same trade in civilian life, and joined the army on the same day. Their fingerprints differ.

The "long arm of coincidence," in this case, operated to an extent never equaled in fiction, even "The Prisoner of Zenda."

W not only have living duplicates but we are duplicates of people who lived in the past. Old settlers have often observed this—how a boy or girl is almost an exact double of some ancestor of a few generations since.

Photography is a comparatively recent invention, so few of us can check back and find our double of long ago. In families where oil paintings have been preserved for several generations, the recurrence of "looks" is almost universally recognized.

It would be great sport, to turn the clock back a few centuries and come face to face with the man or woman whose features, build and mannerisms have cropped out in us.

Even more fascinating would be to turn the clock the other way and see the persons of the distant future who will be doubles of us who are living today.

This recurrence of doubles, generation after generation, probably is what started the oriental belief in reincarnation.

Maybe the man who figured Europe has 20,000,000 more women than men counted them in the church.

On the island of Formosa, 4300 houses burned, but it is warm enough there to flee scantily clad.

PIGS IS RATS

Hygienists who strive to keep up to date in their teachings have been calling attention, in the last few years, to the influence of fatigue upon individual susceptibility to the respiratory infections, commonly called "colds." In 1910 two investigators, Abbott and Gildersleeve, reported the results of some experiments which they conducted on rabbits to determine just what effect fatigue had on susceptibility to infection with disease producing germs. They found that when rabbits were inoculated with cultures of disease germs and then made to run for several hours in a wheel the rabbits succumbed, but rabbits similarly inoculated but not subjected to fatigue, survived.

These students went further, and observed the "opsonic index" of the rabbits used in the experiment. The "opsonic index" is a measurement of the capacity of the blood to destroy disease germs, for nearly everybody knows that certain blood corpuscles (the white corpuscles of phagocytes) are voracious devourers of microbes and rapidly increase in numbers in the blood whenever disease germs invade the system. In the fatigued rabbits the opsonic index diminished in proportion to the degree of fatigue, but increased toward the normal again after a day or so of rest. We are not rabbits, yet there is no question that rest in bed for the first 24 hours is a great help in fighting an alleged "cold."

The authors of the experiments on the rabbits were university of Pennsylvania men. Now some Johns-Hopkins investigators (Oppenheimer and Spaeth) have been conducting some similar experiments on guinea pigs and rats. They have arrived at conclusions which are not in accord with the present conception of fatigue as a factor of susceptibility to infection. Rats inoculated with disease germs and forced to exercise or work to the point of fatigue, gained in resistance to infection! And later a lot of Johns-Hopkins guinea pigs positively refused to succumb to the lethal effects of pneumococci when fatigued in a similar fashion, but on the contrary seemed to show an increased resistance when forced to take considerable exercise.

So until this controversy is settled, we shall have to qualify our teachings about the relation of fatigue to susceptibility. I suppose one may say that fatigue is a predisposing factor of influenza, pneumonia, and the like, in a university of Pennsylvania sense, but not Johns-Hopkinsly speaking. Altho I am not a press agent for either school, if anybody contemplates sneering in my face, or conversing with me intimately when he has a "slight cold," I hope he will not catch me when I'm tired. To my way of thinking, we human animals are more akin to the rabbits than to rats or guinea pigs. Anyhow, while Philadelphia and Baltimore are fighting the thing out, let us be particularly careful when tired to keep outside of the five foot barage o' fth pest who persists in going about when he has what he calls "just a cold."

THE CALL OF SPRING

When spring is overhead again
With tulips flashing red again,
When sunbeams come a-dancing through
The window panes once more,
When the birds begin to sing again
And every living thing again
Begins to tell the patient world
That winter's reign is o'er,
Then like the sap which floods the tree
The joy of life awakes in me.

When crocuses come peeping out
And tendrils green are creeping out,
When trees that have been gaunt and bare

Put on their garments new,
Like plant and vine and solemn tree
I feel a thrill of ecstasy,
And from the dead leaves of the past
I try to struggle, too,
From all that was of hurt and pain
I bring my faith to bloom again.

When all the grass grows green again
And life seems fresh and clean again,
When fields that have been desolate
Are shining in the sun,
Across the years of my belief,
Made bleak and desolate by grief,
I see the sparkling brook of hope,
And faith begins to run,
And something deep inside of me
Whispers of man's divinity.

HOTEL BILL MAY PASS TODAY

On Calendar of Ohio Senate and Stated for Vote

SUPPLY MEASURE ALSO UP

Defeated Uniform Traffic Code Likely to be Reconsidered

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press.)—Funds will be written in the senate today to the turbulent course of the hotel liability bill of Senator L. L. Marshall, Republican, of Cleveland.

The measure which would limit the liability of hotels for the property of their guests and which was the center of an investigation by a special senate committee, is on today's calendar and slated for passage.

Introduced early in February, it was reported out by the committee, later referred to the judiciary committee, when rumors of corruption, later proved untrue, cast a shadow over it, and reported out again and given a clean bill of health following the investigation. The senate also was to consider today the Finance bill, which would permit the incarceration of the women liquor law violators in the Marysville reformatory until they had worked out their fines and permit counties to have male prisoners work out their fines on the roads. The bill is a part of the program of the Anti-Saloon League and already has passed the house.

The house had before it the bill of Representative Allen C. McDonald of Dayton, providing for quadrennial assessment of all real property as its major measure for passage today.

APPROPRIATION BILL
The senate also was to receive from the finance committee today the general appropriation bill, said by committee members to have been cut some $800,000 from the total of more than $72,000,000 at which it passed the house. Among the units receiving the larger cuts, it was said, was the industrial relations department which was said to have lost a large amount of its original appropriation thru action of the senate committee.

While the house defeated by a large vote yesterday the uniform traffic code bill of Senator Marshall, house members today professed to see a chance of its reconsideration and passage. Restriction as to the age at which children would be permitted to drive—the rock on which rural members split with those who favored the bill—was to be eliminated if the bill came up for passage again. The bill had been drafted by city solicitors and the attorney general's department.

TIME BILL PASSES
If Governor Donahoe approves, clocks on county buildings in localities where Eastern time prevails, may be legally operated as is desired. The senate last night passed the bill of Representative Osborn, Republican, of Licking-co which nullifies the law requiring all county time pieces to be operated on Central Standard time.

The Brown-Pouts "blue sky" bill designed to strengthen the state securities department, after passing the senate yesterday, now will go to Governor Donahoe, providing the house concurs in a senate amendment eliminating real estate transactions from the provisions of the measure.

An alternate juror who would sit with juries in protracted cases but not participate in the verdict unless a regular juror became ill is a possibility in Ohio. The senate yesterday passed the bill of Representative Morgan embracing such a provision. It now goes to the governor.

Marion-co's probate court would be granted jurisdiction in divorce and alimony cases, under a bill of Representative Hill of Marion, passed by the house last night.

COUNTY HEALTH BOARD PREPARES 1923 BUDGET

Preparation of the 1923 health budget and routine business occupied the attention of the meeting of the Allen-co health board, held Tuesday afternoon in the office of County Health Commissioner J. J. Suter.

The program, which will be presented to the county budget commission, asks for $6,800 for the maintenance of the department for the year. No increase over last year's budget was made.

Members of the advisory council, consisting of the mayors of cities and the presidents of townships, will meet May 7. Two new members of the county health board will be named at this meeting, one to fill the unexpired term of Dr. G. E. Miller, of Spencerville, who moves from the district and a vacancy created by the expiration of term of Dr. A. J. Gray.

ASSUMED NAME ADOPTED BY WIFE, HUSBAND SAYS IN SUIT FOR DIVORCE

An assumed name, adopted to annoy her husband, is among divorce allegations made in a divorce action instituted in common pleas court Wednesday by Edward Burdine, who seeks a legal separation from Sue Burdine, of Mansfield. Burdine alleges that they were married June 15, 1930. His wife, he says, neglected to perform her household and other marital duties during their brief matrimonial career.

Later she abandoned the plaintiff the petition says, after expressing dissatisfaction with everything he did. At that time Burdine charges, his wife was violent and abusive toward him.

After leaving him, he accuses her of assuming another name to annoy him and conceal her movements.

MAIRE ESTATE IS OVER $350,000

Bulk of Property of Oil Man Left to Brother, Sister

A fortune was bestowed upon Harold Smith, 306 S. Charles-st., in recognition of his faithful services of 20 years, by terms of the will of Edward J. Maire, probated before Judge J. H. Hamilton, Wednesday. He will bequeath the bulk of the $10,000 "as an appreciation of his services in the past," it states. Other bequests made by Maire, who died at Miami, Florida, March 26, are $5,000 in stock each to the Lima City hospital and the Young Men's Christian Association. Smith has been secretary to Maire brothers for 20 years past.

To Miss Francis Maire, 564 W. Market-st., the decedent, gave the family residence in which he and his sister lived, together with all household furniture, carpets, dishes, rugs, personal property in the home and automobiles, to be hers without condition. To Miss Maire and Frank L. Maire, 572 W. Market-st., a brother, will inherit the remainder of the estate, share and share alike. The bequest will include both real and personal effects. No conditions are attached.

Frank L. Maire is nominated executor, without bond. Provision is made in the will that if Frank L. Maire be living at the time of the probate of the instrument, Harold Smith is to act as executor.

One of the requests contained in the will is that no inventory of the estate be taken, if the same can be lawfully omitted. The executor is given power under the will to sell or dispose of such property as he deems best, and to execute and deliver deeds, without interference of the courts.

The last item of the will, the decedent requests to the beneficiaries that after paying his obligations and the legacies, they divide the estate in a satisfactory manner, or to own and operate the property jointly, share and share alike. A request is made that no property shall be sold if the executor deems it best not to do so.

No estimate of the value of the estate is given. "It is the largest estate," declared Judge Hamilton, "that I have had one," he said, "that was $350,000, but this one will be very much larger."

The will was signed March 2, 1918. Maire was a large oil operator and had extensive realty holdings, including part interest in the Faurot-bik.

CLEVELAND DISTRICT TERRORIZED BY STEER

CLEVELAND—A steer, infuriated by a dozen slight bullet wounds, held the district near West 63rd-st and Storer-av, terrorized early today until an expert rifleman shot him down.

The steer had escaped from the yards of the Federal Packing Company. He was being shifted from a cattle car to the yards of the packing house, when he escaped.

Then, pursued by police, packing house employees and citizens, he ran down the street.

He stood in a yard and held his pursuers at bay while police and riflemen fired more than 50 shots at him.

ONLY 1 TOWNSHIP IS UNORGANIZED

Farm Bureau Units Everywhere Save in Shawnee-Tp.

ORGANIZE THERE THIS WEEK

Poultry Producers Keep Egg Record of Flocks

With but one exception every township in the county will be organized into Farm Bureau units by the close of the week, H. J. Ridge, Allen-co agent, stated Wednesday. Shawnee-tp, the only community where a bureau is not formed, plans to organize within the next two weeks, he said.

Monroe-tp people will meet Thursday night at Rockport, to effect a re-organization and regular meetings of Perry and American-tps are scheduled for Wednesday evening. Organizations that have become active within the past year, Ridge declared, are realizing the benefits of such cooperation. Those communities in which the Farm Bureau unit is organized naturally get the first chance at any advantage the bureau has to offer. He cited as an example the recent wool contracting. Those townships which had local officers to boost the signing of contracts and to procure all the necessary information are ahead of those few communities in which there is still no organized cooperation, he pointed out.

Board of directors of the Farm Bureau Federation will meet with Walton Petzet, director of marketing, April 16, 17 and 18, at Columbus to discuss cooperative marketing methods. After the meeting the directors will call separate sessions of their districts to further the discussion. The state of Ohio is divided into 23 districts, with one director from each comprising the state board.

Allen-co, with Van Wert, Putnam and Paulding-tps make up the Fifth district. Errel Walley, of Paulding-co, is the director from this district.

Allen-co poultry producers who are keeping an accurate record of the results of their flocks are sending the monthly records to the Farm Bureau office. Fifteen farmers are keeping these records. E. McElwain, of Lafayette, reports 5,600 eggs from a flock of 285 hens for the month of March.

CONTINUANCE OF HOG SERUM PLANT URGED

COLUMBUS—Recommendation that the state hog serum plant near here be continued and that it not only manufacture hog cholera serum but continue its research work into animal diseases, was made today by a special committee appointed to investigate the plant. The committee report, submitted to the house by Representative A. S. Cooley, of Cleveland, said that the manufacture of the serum should be continued as a stabilizer of prices and in the case of an epidemic. Should the manufacture of the serum be stopped, the committee said it had been told, the price of the serum made by commercial companies would increase greatly.

INFANT WIDMARK FOUND DEAD IN BED IN HOME

Harold Charles Widmark, 10-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Widmark, 731 Holly-st., was found dead in bed Wednesday morning, death resulting from illness since birth. Surviving besides the parents, is one sister, Alva, at home. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

PROWLER REPORTED
H. W. Stevenson, north side fireman, reported to police late Tuesday that there was a prowler around his home. When police arrived they could not find anyone.

France and Germany — World's Oil Supply — Pan-American Notes — Current Events Discussed for Students and Adults

BY CHARLES F. STEWART.

That France will fail to overcome Germany's resistance to her Ruhr plans is a thing the Paris government isn't afraid of a bit, according to Gallie spokesmen.

It's acknowledged that the French aren't getting as much coal as they need for the Ruhr. It isn't disputed that the invasion has been expensive. It's conceded that the government has had to overcome considerable opposition at home.

All that doesn't bother them, the French leaders say. They declare Germany has suffered far more acutely than France that even now she's on the verge of yielding. When she does so, the French expect to get back all they put into the enterprise, and more too.

That is to say, that's what they expect, provided they're left to execute their own settlement with the Germans. What they fear is that somebody'll try to "butt in." At any rate so the Paris Press says.

OUTSIDE HELP ISN'T WANTED

The view expressed by the French newspapers is that their country bore the brunt of the war, and that the other countries that took part in the peace negotiations enriched her out of a lot of the advantages she'd have claimed if she'd made her own terms with Germany.

The press is fearful now, France having shouldered all the expense and trouble of war, that the risks of the Ruhr occupation, that outsiders will try again to prevent her from getting the full benefit of that, too.

This, some of the papers say, is quite frankly, is why the French are so suspicious of "outsiders" who have an idea the mediators will think more about their own interests than they will about France's.

They mention this as a main reason why a settlement's delayed. BURMA'S WEALTH OF OIL

Just as he was leaving, the cabinet ex-Secretary of the Interior said charged that a conspiracy, including interests in every important country but this one, exists to gobble up the whole world's oil supply, exhaust America's, and then lay the United States under tribute for every gallon she has to have in future.

Now, only a few days later, comes

Society News

WEDNESDAY, at high noon, Miss Clara Leech, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leech, became the bride of Lee Hopper, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hopper of Columbus, formerly of this city. The ceremony was read by Rev. C. A. Rowland, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, and the ceremony was witnessed by the most intimate friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The rooms of the bride's home were artistically decorated with spring flowers and palms, lavender and pink being the prevailing colors. The bride was attired in a dress of gray crepe, shoes and stockings to match, wore a large gray picture hat, faced and trimmed in pink, and her corsage was of pink roses, lavender sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Mrs. J. J. Paine, Pittsburg, who was matron of honor for her sister wore a black crepe dress and a large blue picture hat; she carried pink roses. Miss Eva Hopper, sister of the groom, was maid of honor and wore a dress of blue crepe, with small hat to match, and her corsage was of violets and roses. Lee Woodrow of Columbus was best man to the groom.

Following the ceremony, a wedding luncheon was served for the guests. The table was attractive in its appointments of lavender and white and places were laid for only members of the wedding party and a few relatives.

The bride and groom departed early in the afternoon for a honeymoon thru the East and will be at home in Columbus at 1212 Fairway, after May the first. The bride has been a teacher at the Horace Mann school for several years and has many friends in the city. The groom is employed by the Columbus Tile and Fireplace Co.

Mrs. A. E. Gale and Mrs. George Quail were charming hostesses Wednesday afternoon, to a large company of friends, at a luncheon-bridge at the Lima club. The luncheon tables were placed in the main dining room, and were very attractive in their appointments of yellow. Yellow candles, tied with white tulle, were placed on each table, while the nut baskets and place cards were of the same color. Following the luncheon, thirteen tables were arranged for bridge in the west drawing room of the club; while those who preferred to sew, were made comfortable in the lounge. Guests of Mrs. Gale and Mrs.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Schryver, Columbus, of the engagement of their daughter, Caroline June, to Fred G. Simpson, son of Mrs. Julia Simpson, of this city. The charming bride-to-be, a graduate of Columbus School for Girls and Phelps school, Chicago, is attending Ohio State university, and is a member of the Delta Gamma sorority. Her fiancé, a popular Lima man, is a graduate of Ohio State university, affiliated with the Delta Tau Delta fraternity, and is at the present time, a teller with the Citizens' Trust and Savings Bank in Columbus.

Miss Schryver has many friends in this city, having visited here frequently and her charming personality has gained her many friends in Lima, as well as Columbus.

KING TUT STRUTS ON BROADWAY

(BY MARIAN HALE)
NEW YORK — (Special) — King Tut has finally brought the Tut Strut to Broadway!

It has completely ousted the debutante slouch, not only as a terpsichorean novelty but as a real body builder and health giver. It is scheduled to rest-re-beauty of figure and carriage to the American woman.

"The Tut Strut," Dolly Connolly explains—and Dolly is a noted heraid of new dances—"raises the shoulders, puts the old spine back on the job and keeps it going straight."

"It is a revival of the old Egyptian walk of Cleopatra's day. In those ancient times, music was used only for marching of soldier, and to make the walk of the Egyptian women more graceful."

"Before the debutante slouch, we had the kangaroo walk—a terrible ordeal. It forced the stomach in and the hips out. Then came the debutante slouch where the hips were in and the stomach out."

"Now the Tut Strut takes a course midway between the two. The shoulders are erect and square, but the stomach is held in."

"The idea is to present a silhouette of lines and angles. Elbows are to be held akimbo at all times. For further details consult any old Egyptian frieze and the new mode will be revealed to you."

To add this we are going to carry high canes, fastened to the hand, much longer than those carried by men, and we can have our angles always with us.

OLD TUNES HELP

Miss Connolly has made an intensive study of Egyptian music.

"Every tune," she says, "affects some different part of the body. Some make us want to tap our feet—martial airs; others make us want to shake our head—Gaelic ligs; but the Egyptians aim right for the shoulders."

"The music of King Tut's day was practically the same as the negro spirituals of our southern states. In fact, these airs have been handed down from generation to generation by the earliest slaves. It has finally been corrupted to the jazz of our day."

Mr. and Mrs. A. Simmons, 1020 Laurel-av, has as their guest, Miss Anna Rindstet of Cincinnati, a sister of Mr. Simmons.

Mrs. Cloyd Youkum, Marion-av, welcomed members of the Jolly Elite Euchre club, at her home, Tuesday afternoon. Guests other than the club members were Mesdames Edward Ewing, Thomas Downing and Edward Weaver. In the euchre games, high scores were held by Mrs. Fred Goes and Mrs. Dwight McBeth.

The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Fred Goes, Grand-av.

STRAWBERRY CAKE

BY BERTHA E. SHAPLEIGH

Separate the whites and yolks of three eggs. Beat the yolks until thick and light-colored, then add one cup of sugar and beat well. Sift cup of flour with one and one-half teaspoons of baking powder and one-fourth teaspoon of salt, and add to the beaten egg yolks and sugar, stirring it in lightly.

Add one tablespoon of hot water and two teaspoons of lemon juice, put into a well-buttered pan and bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven. Cool, split and fill with strawberries sweetened to taste. On top place stiffly beaten cream, sweetened and flavored.

Another attractive way to serve this cake is to cut a piece from the center, leaving a wall one inch thick on the sides and one-half inch on the bottom. Fill the center with the strawberries and cover with stiffly beaten cream.

WAX SPOTS

If drops of wax drip from the candles onto the rug or table-cover place a piece of blotting paper over the spot and on that lay a warm iron for a few seconds. If the spot is noticeably removed sprinkle it with French chalk before putting on the blotter and try again.

It's a Mystery

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fisher of Dayton, has returned to her home after visiting her sister, Mrs. F. A. Worrell, N. Collet-st, for the past two weeks.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: I have been writing my pay envelope to my wife every Saturday, expecting her to have all bills paid and to put what was left in the bank. A few months ago I discovered that she hadn't saved a penny. Although my salary is only $2.15 a year, I feel my wife should live and save according to their income. We are past middle age and I feel that we should be saving a little. My wife spends most of our money on jewelry and clothes for herself, giving away and buying for her friends. It hurts me to see her spending so much money, foolishly, when I work so hard to make money. I have been too liberal with her in the past and she thinks there is no end to anything. What shall I do?

J. B. G.

YOUR letter indicates that your wife has not been fair in this matter, but it also indicates that you perhaps have been rather careless and indifferent about money matters yourself, when you left the management of the family financial affairs entirely to your wife. Your letter suggests that you did not go to the trouble of discussing your financial affairs with your wife from time to time, in the past. If she failed to mention saving, it was up to you to ask her what progress she had made along that line. Ask your wife to help you make a budget, setting aside a certain amount for each line of expenditure and a definite amount to be saved.

Dear Miss Smart: I am in the seventh grade and I am 15 years old. I would like to ask for a little information as to who the present ambassadors to Italy and China are.

THANK YOU.

Richard Child of Massachusetts is the American ambassador to Italy and Jacob Gould Schurman of New York is the ambassador to China.

Dear Miss Smart: Will you please answer the following questions for me?

(1) I am a girl seventeen years old; am I too young to go with a boy, who is 21?

(2) What do the following names mean: Emma, Bobby and Harry?

(3) Where does the syllable mark for the word Coppelot go?

(4) I have a dark complexion; what colors do you think I could wear best?

(5) In bobbed hair going out of the top, is it all right for a girl to give her hair a photo and to receive one in return?

(6) What would be nice to give a boy friend?

(7) How is my writing?

BOBBY.

(1) No, I believe not.

(2) Emma means maiden; Bobby means industrious; Harry is a nickname for Robert, which means bright or famous. Harry means the name of a house.

(3) Accent comes on the first syllable.

(4) Jade green, red, or lavender would be becoming.

(5) No, I think the popularity of bobbed hair will remain thruout the summer.

(6) Yes.

(7) Books, stationery, a fountain pen or silver pencil are acceptable.

(8) Very good.

What to Eat and Why

A Natural Supply of Vitamin

"Vitamin" is new, but it is as old as the sun. It is the energizing, growth-producing element in the right food. Its absence is a serious fault of the diet. When the food is deficient in Vitamin, the body is starved for Vitamin. Grape-Nuts, the famous ready-to-eat cereal, supplies the natural Vitamin from the wheat, and a further supply is included in the cream which which Grape-Nuts is made. It is deliciously crisp and has a flavor which makes the wholesome, energizing goodness which the cereal has. Phosphorus and iron are also included in the Vitamin.

brain content to stimulate intestinal action, are supplied by Grape-Nuts. Many of our modern, "refined" foods lack these vitally necessary elements. Grape-Nuts digests easily and is assimilated quickly, and is splendidly nourishing and energizing. You'll find better health and fitness in the natural way, with Grape-Nuts as a regular part of your diet. There's genuine economy in Grape-Nuts—many servings of this exceptionally nourishing food to the package. At your grocer's—ready to serve. Grape-Nuts—the Body Builder. "There's a Reason." Hollandaise Sauce

(BY BERTHA E. SHAPLEIGH)
THE real French method of making a Hollandaise sauce is to make an emulsion of egg yolks, acid and butter, cooking it over water. To this thick sauce, which is quite the finest of all sauces, some American cooks add boiling water, thinning the sauce and making it good for baked or boiled fish where a thinner sauce is more desirable. Because the sauce cannot be kept hot without danger of separation, many cooks add a small amount of thick white sauce.

A good recipe consists of one-half cup of butter, two egg yolks, one table spoon lemon juice or vinegar, one quarter teaspoon salt and a little cayenne.

Work the butter until creamy, but not soft, and divide it into three portions. Place one portion with egg yolk and acid in a sauce pan. Hold the sauce pan over hot water, and stir constantly until the yolks have begun to thicken the butter; add a second portion of butter, and then the remaining piece. When butter is melted and the mixture is as smooth as mayonnaise, remove from the fire. Season and serve at once.

If a separation does take place add a tablespoon of boiling water or cream, and stir vigorously.

Hollandaise may be used with a tenderloin of beef, veal cutlet, fried or broiled fish, artichokes, asparagus and many egg dishes. There are many variations, such as the addition of tarragon, anchovy sauce, cream or tomato purée.

CELERY SALT

You can make your own celery salt, which is excellent for flavoring soups and savories, if you save the celery leaves and dry them until they are crisp. Then crush to a powder and mix with an equal amount of table salt.

GREEN VEGETABLES

Green vegetables should never lie in cold water more than half an hour before they are to be cooked.

NOW GO ON WITH STORY
MICHAEL CONTINUES:
 "Just cast your eye over that first," she invited. "That's an exact copy of the speech which Ted prepared for the mass-meeting in Liverpool in March."
 "In Liverpool?" I repeated, hoping for some elucidation.
 "The meeting that was called to decide upon the shipping strike," she explained a little impatiently. "I glanced thru the typewritten pages. They seemed to consist of a vehement appeal to the dockers, bonders and Union of Seamen to inaugurate on the following day the greatest strike in history, promising them the support of the miners and railway men, and predicting the complete defeat of the government within six weeks. The speech concluded with a peroration, full of extreme revolutionary sentiments, and on a blank page at the end, under the heading 'Approved' were the signatures of a dozen of the best known men in the Labor world."

"This speech—" I began, tentatively, for the matter was not yet clear to me.
 "Was never delivered, of course," the man interrupted. "You know all about that. Ted went down to Liverpool as mild as a lamb. He stood up there on the platform and told them that the present moment was inopportune for a strike. Not only that, but the next day he bamboozled them into accepting the employers' terms."
 "Satisfactory so far as it goes," I observed, dialectically but with caution. "And now—"
 "Here," the woman interrupted triumphantly, "is Lord Kindersey's letter, delivered to Ted that afternoon in Liverpool."

I read the letter, dated from South Audley Street, and its opening phrases were illuminative. I knew that Ted was Mr. Edward Rendall, the present leader of the Labor party in the House of Commons. It read:
 "My dear Mr. Rendall:
 "This letter, which I am dispatching by airplane messenger, will reach you, I trust, before you address the meeting this evening. The matter with which it is concerned cannot be dealt with by the Federation of Shipowners but confirming our recent conversations Sir Philip Richardson and I are willing, between us, to advance tomorrow banknotes to the value of 50,000 pounds, to be paid to the funds of your cause or to be made use of in any way you think fit, provided the strike threatened for tomorrow does not take place."

"Geoffrey Kindersey," "P. S.—In your own interests, as well as ours, I suggest that you immediately destroy this letter."
 "As a matter of curiosity," I asked, "why did your husband not take Lord Kindersey's advice and destroy this letter?"
 "He told me to," she replied. "As a matter of fact, he thought he was me. It was just at the time I was beginning to have my suspicions of Master Ted, so I wrote up a circular instead and put this by for a bit."
 "A pretty clever stroke of work, to," the man opposite murmured with an approving grin. "You put a rod in pickle for Ted that day, Lizzy."

"And served him right, too," the lady remarked, glancing in her mirror and making some trifling rearrangement of her coiffure.

There was a brief silence. The man drew his chair a little closer to the table and addressed me with a businesslike air.
 "Now, Mr. Martin, or whatever your name is, let's finish this job up," he proposed. "You've got a copy of the speech that Ted Rendall promised his pals to deliver at Liverpool, typed at Mrs. Simons' office, Number 23 Dale Street. You've got the original letter from Lord Kindersey, proving up to the hilt why he didn't deliver it; and, if he went on, striking the table with his fist, 'I am now going to tell you that that 50,000 pounds was handed over to Ted at the National Liberal Club the following evening at six o'clock, and was paid in by him, to his own credit, to five different banks on the following morning. The names of the banks are there, in pencil, on the back of Lord Kindersey's letter."

 I leaned back in my chair and felt my way a little further.
 "If we make a deal and your part with these documents to me," I said, "what use do you expect me to make of them?"
 "We know pretty well whom you're acting for," the man put in, with a knowing grin. "I guess it won't be long before Charlie Payton handles these documents, if we come to terms."
 "You have no conditions to make?" I asked.

"None!" the woman snapped. "I've finished with Ted. He's a cur. You can publish the whole lot in the Daily Mail, if you like, for all I care."
 "Then there remains only the question of price," I concluded. The fluff of wine and the momentary expansiveness of good feeling seemed to pass from the faces of my two guests. A natural and anxious curiosity took its place. They stared to ask too little; they were terrified lest they might scare me away by asking too much.
 "They'd be worth a pretty penny to Ted," the woman muttered.
 "You don't want to sell them to him," I pointed out.

"I don't, and that's a fact," she admitted. "Look here, Mr. Martin, they're yours for a thousand pounds."
 A thousand pounds was precisely the sum I had brought with me. Without remark, I counted out the notes and pocketed the documents. The man and woman seemed very surprised at this uneventful finish to the proceedings. The latter tucked away the notes in her handbag, while I paid the bill. When I rose to take leave of them, I could see, standing the doorway and looking at us with a puzzled expression, a middle-aged man, who I decided at once was the individual whom I had impersonated. I said at once: "The business is over, I trust, pleasantly. Forgive me, if I take my leave. There are others anxious to hear from me."

 The woman clutched her bag with her left hand and extended her right.
 "Well, I'm sure you've been quite the gentleman, Mr.—Mr.—let me see, what was the name?"
 I replied, "especially as it was only assumed for the evening. Good night, and good luck to you both."
 I added as I made my escape. . . . There was a fine rain falling outside, but I walked steadily on, obsessed with the sudden desire for fresh air. The atmosphere of the place I had left, the character of my companions, the sordid ignominy of the transaction which I had just concluded, had filled me with disgust. Then I began to laugh softly to myself. It was a queer anomaly, this—that I, for whom the police of the world were always searching, should feel distaste at so ordinary an ill deed. I had robbed, and struck ruthlessly enough, in my way, but as a matter of fact, blackmailing was the one malpractice which I had never happened to practice before. In any case, as I reminded myself, the ignominious part of the affair was over. Its continuation was likely to appeal more to my sense of humor.

Over a late whiskey and soda that night in my room, I began to build my plans. It seemed to me that the career of Mr. Edward Rendall, M. P., and the reputation of Lord Kindersey, were equally in my hands. It was surely not possible that the two combined would not produce a reasonable profit upon my outlay of a thousand pounds. As I sat and smoked, another idea occurred to me, and before I retired to rest, I wrote a long letter of instructions to Mr. Younghouse.

I remained at my office in Holborn on the following morning until I heard from Mr. Younghouse upon the telephone. As usual he was most formal, addressing me as tho I were one of his ordinary and respected clients. It was obvious, however, that he was perturbed.
 "I have carried out your instructions to the letter, Mr.—Rendall," he announced, "but the magnitude of the operation which you have ventured upon has, I confess, rather staggered me."
 "Let me know exactly what you have done," I said.

"I have sold," he continued, "for your account, thru various firms of brokers, 25,000 shares, common, in the Kindersey Shipping Company at six pounds each. Fortunately, there is no immediate prospect of a rise in stocks of this description, and I was able to arrange to leave margin amounting to only ten shillings a share, namely, 12,500 pounds."
 "Very good," I assented. "What is the price just now?"
 "The stock has dropped a trifle, naturally," the lawyer replied, "owing to your operations. The broker, however, at whose office I now am, advises me to disregard that. He thinks that they will probably recover during the day."

"Just so! When is settlement day?"
 "On the 4th. Apropos of that, the various brokers with whom I have had dealings on your behalf desire to know whether you would wish to close your transactions or any portion of them during the next few days, if a profit of, say, a quarter a share is shown."

FROM LESLIE HAMILTON, BRIDE-TO-BE, TO LESLIE HAMILTON

I am so glad I found you, dear little secret drawer.
 I shall keep as long as I shall live your little hiding place to anyone. I am quite sure when John's mother gave me this beautiful desk that she never had an idea of the wonderful treasure she was bestowing on me. It is the dearest possession I have.
 It thrills me thru and thru to think that I have found this secret drawer, which has held for hundreds of years only this scrap of paper upon which is written:
 "I hope whoever shall come after me that finds this hidden drawer, will make it, as I have, a receptacle of all her heart's secrets."

"One of the greatest mistakes a woman can make is to let anyone see into the inmost recesses of her soul. Yet we poor feminine things are built in such a way that at times we must disgorge our over-charged hearts."
 "Invariably when we do this to mortals we come to find disillusion and grief, but this dear place of silence has kept all my secrets and I know it will keep those of the next woman who finds her way to it."
 "They tell me now that I am going to die, and so I am taking back my confidences and laying them, one by one, upon the fire, for no one, not even those who have loved me best, may know—as these yellowing sheets of paper could tell—that the gay little Marquise, as they called me at the court, was beloved of a king."
 "Who was the gay little Marquise?" I do not know, but I do know that she loved devotedly and was loved in return; and by a king. In this secret drawer she laid her heart and this silent friend she has passed on to me.

Oh, gay little Marquise, I am sorry for you tonight for both you and your kingly lover have been dust for hundreds of years. Probably in some forgotten garden in France the old rose trees are whispering to each other of when he picked a blossom, kissed it and gave it to you and you placed it above your heart. Those rose-trees are waiting—waiting until you come again, and you are dust.
 Dear little Marquise, I wish you could know that my love has just begun, for tomorrow I shall go to my lover to be his "until death do us part."

Tomorrow will begin that new life, that life for which every woman feels herself born; a life the fulness and bliss of which every woman dreams; a life the loss of which is the greatest tragedy that can come to any one of her sex.
 I wonder if every girl on her wedding eve looks forward to the never-ending happiness that is to come to me. I wonder if before my mother slipped away from her father's house to become my father's wife, she was thinking the thoughts that I am thinking now. It seems to me, dear little Marquise, that no one, not even you, has loved and is loved as I.

First in this new life there will be the joy of belonging. Has every other woman's soul thrilled as mine does when her lover whispers, "Sweetheart, you are mine?" Already I have learned this means more than all else the desire to possess and to be possessed in turn.
 John will belong to me. In all the world there will be no one as near to him as I. When he is happy, I will be happy; when he sorrows, I must grieve and even if disgrace should come it will be mine to share.

After tomorrow we two will be one.
 Oh, gay little Marquise, I am afraid that you never were quite happy because in the vague message that you have left behind, it seems that you could not acknowledge your lover before the world. You never had the delicious thrill of pride in your lover. Only this little secret drawer knew that you were his and he was yours.

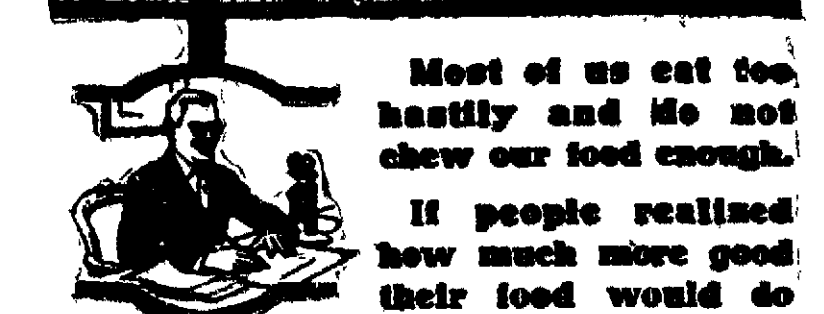

But tomorrow, Leslie Hamilton—I am going to proclaim my love to the whole wide world. Tomorrow I am going to John before God and man with pride on my brow, love on my lips and devotion in my heart.
 Poor little Marquise, my tears are falling on your written confession. I am sorry for you as I contrast your love—your lover with mine. You loved a king whom you could not acknowledge.
 I love a man whose love for me is to be proclaimed tomorrow where all the world may hear.

TOMORROW: Leslie from Mrs. Alden Prescott to Priscilla Bradford, detailing a mother's feelings at the wedding of her son.

ENNIS STAR GIVES NEWS READERS POINTERS ON GAME

Richard, the national doubles champion, writes two articles for the News and N. E. A. telling how to play the game and how to win. Richard has also written a third article, interpreting the ethics of the game as he understands them. Every tennis player and those interested in the game will be glad of this opportunity to read how a champion plays and what he thinks of the ethics of the game. Vincent's meteoric rise to championship is sufficient guarantee that they are "right." Here is the first of the series. The others will be run Thursday and Friday afternoons, exclusively in Lima in The News.

(BY VINCENT RICHARDS)
(Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

The forehand drive in lawn tennis is the opening every offensive. Naturally it should be studied very carefully. There are certain rules that apply to all strokes in tennis. One of these the drive has its full share.

In order to reach a ball that is a short distance away advance the foot that is away from the shot and thus swing into position. When one is hurried, it is not possible to change the foot position, throw the weight on the foot closest to the ball.

The forehand drive is made up of one continuous swing of the entire racquet. Always remember that all drives should be topped. The slice shot is a totally different stroke.

All drives should be made with a stiff locked wrist. There is no wrist movement in a true drive. Top spin is put into the drive by the arm, not the wrist.

The back-hand drive is made the same way the forehand drive is.

Never under any circumstances favor the forehand drive over the back-hand. If you do your game will be one-sided. Develop both forehand and backhand, and be sure never to run around your back-hand. Especially never run around the return of your service. For to do so merely opens up your court to your opponent.

If caught in this position strive to face your returns, because a weak return means an easy kill for your adversary.

Do not develop one favorite shot and play nothing but that. If you have a fair cross-court drive use it in practice but always try and develop a straight shot.

DEEP DRIVES

Always remember that drives should have depth. The average drive should hit within three feet of the back line. One should drive deep against the man who plays the baseline, but short against a net player, striving to drop them at his feet as he comes in.

Do not strive for terrific speed at first in your drives. The most essential thing in driving is to get the ball into play. One of the greatest players of all time said that the secret of his success at the game was the fact that he kept the ball in play. Accuracy is the keynote at first, then comes your speed afterward.

Course For Leaders Good

(BY RICHARD A. THORNBURGH)

One of the most beneficial courses at the Y. M. C. A. now is the gymnasium leaders' theory course.

It is called a theory course, but according to I. G. Maxwell, physical director of the association, practical work is being given persons taking the course along with the theory.

Fifteen minutes is given over to Bible study before the other work is commenced. At the present time the manhood of the Master is being studied.

TWO TERMS

The course is divided into two terms, the first part of the year being devoted to Bible education, including a study of the mechanics of the body, the bones, muscles, circulation and nervous system.

The second half is being taken up by the study of physical education. This includes the following topics:

- 1.—Physical, mental and moral efficiency of the individual depends on maintenance of health.
- 2.—Maintenance of health depends on the normal development of and functioning of mental apparatus.
- 3.—Mental development also depends to a large degree on training of the neuro muscular or nervous system.
- 4.—Development of sturdy Christian manhood can be promoted by properly conducted physical training, especially during the youth and early years of manhood.

OPPORTUNITY

As service is the keynote of Christian character, the physical department offers a large opportunity for its development among members.

Mr. Maxwell is directing the classes and using "Physical Education" and other books as text books. Classes are taking the course this year. Classes are held every Friday night and two nights will be taken to cover each of the above topics.

LEWIS RETAINS MAT TITLE

CHICAGO — "Strangler" Ed Lewis' vicious headlock helped him to a two out of three falls victory over the world's heavyweight wrestling champion here last night from Renato Gardini, Boston, Mass., Italian. For the first fall Gardini slammed Lewis to the mat with a flying mare and while the champion lay with the breath smothered from him, pinned him with a double arm lock in 20 minutes and 35 seconds.

In an hour, eleven minutes and forty-five seconds, Lewis applied a seven headlocks to Gardini for the second fall. The Italian challenger came out for the third fall dazed and weakened by the punishing grasp of Lewis' arms about his head and succumbed to four successive headlocks for the deciding fall in three minutes and twenty-one seconds.

BABE RUTH IN HIT SLUMP

NEW YORK — Correspondents traveling northward from New Orleans with the New York Yankees reported today that Babe Ruth was in the slumps and that it had the Bambino perceptibly worried. In spite of the Babe's zeal in training this year, his successful effort in getting down to weight and his earnestness in discipline, he has failed to produce his long or short. He seems to have difficulty in meeting the ball and because of this the pitcher gets two strikes on him, a status that was much provoking for him in former years.

Experts who have studied the Babe and his baseball for years believe that his difficulty may be due to over-eagerness, to his revised estimate of his duty to the public, to his owners, to his team and to himself. The experts are trying to establish in their own minds whether the Babe has lost confidence in himself.

BROOKLYN PITCHERS ONLY HOPE OF DODGERS

Only one of the many pitching recruits now being tried out by Brooklyn looks to be ready for the big show.

Leo Dickerman, purchased from the Memphis club of the Southern League for $10,000, is the albino in question. He is a tall right hander, with plenty of stuff, and appears to have an excellent chance to stick.

Dickerman, tall for Memphis, Tenn., which finished second in the Southern Association race, won 20 games and lost only seven for that club. He is the only finished-looking product among the hurling recruits and is likely to win a number of games for Brooklyn.

The burden of Brooklyn club's showing will unquestionably be up to the pitchers. Robinson is banking strongly on Gilmes and Reuther. Reuther looks in fine shape. Dutch

HERE'S CHANCE TO BE A REAL CHAMP RING MAN

CLEVELAND, O.—If you are a big husky athlete and have any fistic aspirations—here is your chance. Jerry Sachs, Cleveland boxing promoter, is in the market for a heavyweight who wouldn't have any objection to winning Jack Dempsey's heavyweight title.

In an effort to find such an individual Sachs plans to hold a heavyweight elimination tournament in Cleveland April 11. The winner of this tournament will be immediately graduated into the professional class and will be given every possible attention in an effort to develop him as a heavyweight contender.

It is the intention to bring the winner along by slow stages until he is ready to meet the better class of heavyweights with Dempsey, of course as the final goal.

Boxing experience is not essential. Endurance, stamina, courage and determination to succeed are far more essential.

Here are the qualifications in the rough: Height 5 feet 10 inches or over. Weight 180 lbs. or more.

If you have ambitions to some day be champion heavyweight of the world, write or wire Jerry Sachs, East 55th and Lexington Ave., Cleveland.

CHICAGO—Twenty teams from throughout the country were to meet in the last half of the first round in the University of Chicago's annual national interscholastic basketball tournament Wednesday and eight have their second round teams.

Nine first round games, virtually an east-west series, were decided yesterday.

In the opening contest the Walla Walla, Wash., high, defeated Gloversville, N. Y., 26 to 23. Nanticoke, Pa., was downed by Miles City, Mont., 32 to 22.

Lorain, Ohio, retained as a strong contender for the title, won its game from Aurora, Minn., 28 to 24, with the teams fighting all the way. It was one of the most spectacular contests of the day.

PLACES OPEN IN CLUB

There are twenty memberships in the McCullough Lake Fishing Club still open for this summer, according to Mike Keller, who has charge of the lake as an agent for Mrs. McCullough.

There will be only fifty members allowed during the summer this year and the twenty memberships are being taken in rapid fire order.

Perch, cat fish, bass and crappies predominate in the lake. Boats may be secured at the western edge.

Local fishermen are preparing for a big season there with the weather opening up as the severe winter has kept rods and reels in their boxes.

TRAINING CAMP NEWS NOTES

Loco Stunt Night Is Success

The Lima Locomotive Works employees' stunt night was well attended Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. It was a big success.

Two boxing bouts were features of the affair. Jimmy Andrews and Young Brown boxed three rounds, but referee I. C. Maxwell had to stop the second bout between Young Ferris and Young Ryal because the kids were knocking each other all over the squared circle.

The Loco Y. M. C. A. quintet out-bowed the Loco Broadway men in a three game match.

The Locomotive rube band opened the program followed by an address of welcome by Tom Pearson. Clifford King sang and Catherine Ferguson gave a reading. Eddie Kies dangled the piano keys and Miss Elizabeth Breckenridge, accompanied by Miss Lucille Curran, galloped much applause by her aesthetic dancing.

George Schott entertained with singing and whistling. Frank Schubert demonstrated his art as a ventriloquist and Beulah Verbrake gave musical readings. E. F. Jones concluded that part of the program with vocal selections.

REDS FEEL CHANCES FOR FLAG ARE GOOD THIS YEAR

The Cincinnati club feels that it has an excellent chance to win the National League pennant in 1923.

What are the reasons for so feeling? Here are a few of them:

The club went thru a tough campaign in 1922. The players feel that the experience gained in that campaign will be of much help to many of the younger players.

The club lost 13 out of the first 14 games in 1922, certainly a terrific handicap to any club with championship aspirations. The players all feel that a worse start in 1923 is absolutely impossible.

While Eppa Rixey was one of the most effective pitchers in the league at the close of last season, he made a start that was in keeping with that of the club. He failed to finish one of the first nine games he started.

Every member of the club expects Rixey to have another big year, better than last, and all of them are positive that his start will not be in keeping with his 1922 effort.

While Babe Pinelli had the best year of his career, most of the players look for him to show the way in the National League at third this year. When Pinelli joined the Reds he had the task before him of replacing Henne Groh. He more than filled the bill, but his nerve alone carried him over the first month or so when his task naturally affected his play.

The Reds are optimistic. They feel that in every way and every day the club is sure to play better ball than in 1922.

COACHING EASIER THAN TALKING

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Coaching a winning track team and giving a speech at a banquet are two different things. At least, such is the opinion of Steve Farrell, famous tutor of University of Michigan athletes.

During the Michigan-Cornell track meet here recently, Steve was considerably worried even though his charges were handing the Ithacans one of the worst defeats the east-erners had received in years.

At the conclusion of the meet he wore an extremely worried look on his face while he was accepting congratulations.

"What's the matter, Steve, you look worried?" he was asked.

"I am worried," he answered.

"You should be the happiest man in Ann Arbor tonight," he was told.

"I am but I suppose I've got to make a speech at the banquet tonight and I don't know what to say," replied the great coach, as he slipped on his coat and hurried over to the "banquet scene."

CASE AGAIN ON MICHIGAN SKED

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—The recent decision of Western Conference officials to adopt an eight-game football schedule this fall, enabled the University of Michigan to keep from upsetting a precedent that has stood for well nigh onto a quarter of a century.

In other words, it permitted the Wolverines to book a game with the Case Scientific School of Cleveland, which institution has season after season appeared at Ann Arbor.

Case had previously been left off the card when the usual allotment of seven games had already been filled.

But now the little Case eleven is certain to help the Yostmen pry open the 1923 gridiron lid just as it has done in many other seasons.

Case has never defeated the Wolverines, tho in 1910 they succeeded in holding the Michigan team to a 3-3 tie.

"FATTY" IN MOVIES AGAIN, BUT NOT IN PERSON

(BY CHRISTOPHER CRAWFORD)
ROSCOE "FATTY" ARBUCKLE is returning to the screen by a new method of presentation. He is appearing in the first of the new series of films, following the notorious San Francisco episode. He has quietly returned by the back door as director of comedies. It is in the person of "Foodies" Hanneford, one of the world's best known clowns, that Arbuckle is staging his comeback.

In circus rings Hanneford was for years a laughing stock, with decided personality and technique of his own, but in the films to which he is now, "Foodies" will virtually be a personification of the fallen star.

Fatty's directing is gestural rather than verbal. Master of gag and screen craft, he acts out precisely what he wants done to the last detail. Thus his proteges, while not mere mannikins, do peculiarly reflect the antics and methods which Hanneford brought to the movie screen before a public frown toppled him a year ago.

Unobtrusively, almost mysteriously in his seclusion, Arbuckle has been working for three months in a Hollywood studio. The hush has been on the publicity trumpet. A small, striking contrast to the magnificent juggernaut of his palmy days, bears him from studio to the home of friends in Beverly Hills with whom he lives. His old haunts know him no more, and few even of his one-time friends know what he is doing.

Working on a modest salary, he has completed a trio of two-reelers for the Reel Comedy Company of New York. "The Bonthead," "Hanneford," and one as yet untitled, to be released probably in May. These pictures feature Hanneford and include in the cast Molly Malone, Arbuckle's former leading woman, and Si Jenks.

In his bid for professional revival, Fatty not only directs but writes, cuts and titles his own product, so that success or failure will rest squarely upon his mammoth shoulders. He is reported to have turned down a number of alluring offers, saying, "I don't want to do anything which would seem to capitalize the notoriety thrust upon me."

Friends who have stuck to him thru thick and lean thick, see something almost pathetic in the fervor with which he is applying himself to his new task. It indicates better than many words how enforced idleness, under public ban, has irked a man who was always an elephant for work. A shy optimism has already ironed a few wrinkles of perplexity from the once grinning visage. And some of the spontaneity has returned to his studio improvisations.

Bowed over by public reaction to Hays' well-meant "reinstatement" after his period of retirement, Fatty now believes he can make 'em giggle again by pulling the strings behind the scenes. By directing pictures instead of acting, he is doing what his critics said he might undertake without offense.

Roscoe smiles at talk. Never very adroit with words, he says it has caused him a lot of trouble. Hence he confines himself largely to stage direction while he saws slapstick wood for the comeback by proxy.

Advocate Data on Thursday's Keith Bill

DEWITT BURNS and TORRENCE, those different comedians, offer the opening act of a snappy vaudeville bill which will appear at the Faurot Opera House for the first time Thursday afternoon. This active and jolly trio will engage in the art of making laughs grow where frowns have flourished.

Newport, Stirk and Sue Parker dispense a series of special comedy songs and original eccentric dances, interspersed by amusing bits of comedy. All their material is strictly exclusive. Miss Parker is a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music and has played in several musical comedies of note.

As the headline attraction, Phina and Company present "An Evening at Home." Some years ago a woman surrounded herself with a group of colored children and toured the world with phenomenal success as "Phina and Her Picks." Following their return to this country they became one of the favorite big time acts of vaudeville. As the years passed, the "picks" like Topsy grew and developed into young men and women of remarkable ability as entertainers. They show a fascinating knowledge of jazz singing and dancing.

A study of songs, stories and melody will be given by Will J. Ward, who formerly was identified with big musical comedies and revues. Assisting Mr. Ward will be a piano, which under his finger tips, almost becomes imbued with animation. Exclusive songs and stories that scintillate wit and snapshins are those included in his repertoire.

Mystery prevails in the last act of the bill. A violin apparently plays at the will of its master, Charles Edmonds, yet no hand is seen to touch it, no bow to come in contact with the strings. To say the least the act is baffling, entertaining and sprinkled thruout with comedy.

A four-reel First National production, is the magnet again today at the Sigma theatre. Also features. AT THE LYRIC "Tess of the Storm Country" starring Mary Pickford, will be seen for the remainder of the week at the Lyric. Added features.

AT THE NEW ORPHEUM Drake and Walker's Bombay Girls is the offering until Sunday at the Orpheum. AT THE MAJESTIC Today only, "Above All Law" with an all-star cast is appearing at the Majestic.

CLEANSE YOUR IMPURE BLOOD THAT "knocked-down-and-dragged-out" feeling, the skin eruptions and muddy complexion and the sick spells that leave you so weak are all signs of impure blood. As a blood medicine and spring tonic Gude's Pepto-Mangan has no equal. It will send a new supply of rich blood coursing through your veins, clear up your skin and give you a new feeling of physical power and vitality. Your druggist has Gude's in liquid and tablet form.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan Tonic and Blood Enricher

THEATRE DIRECTORY AT THE QUILNA Appearing for the last times today, "Hearts Aflame" with Anna Q. Nilsson, Frank Keenan and an excellent supporting cast. Also Quilna News ad Ascor Fabre.

AT THE FAUROT "Tangerine," a musical comedy, is the attraction for tonight only at the Faurot Opera House.

AT THE SIGMA Charlie Chaplin in "The Pilgrim"

"FATTY" ARBUCKLE IS RETURNING TO THE SCREEN THRU "FOODIES" HANNEFORD, SHOWN ABOVE WITH MOLLY MALONE, IN ONE OF ARBUCKLE'S PRODUCTIONS.

Officers of the Board of Commerce have solved the problem of becoming satisfactorily established in their new quarters, by taking up the hammer and the saw, to say nothing of the paint brush.

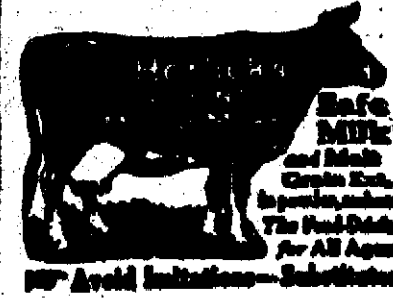

The officers are now located on the first floor of the Steiner-bldg, N. Elizabeth-st., and the office force has become a squad of interior decorators in an effort to arrange the suite to the best advantage.

Delphos May Get Large Office Building

PROPERTY BOUGHT BY LIMA MAN

Prospective Improvement at Main and Third-sts

BUSINESS CHANGES SEEN

Clayton Donze Said to be Seeking Added Frontage

Several business changes are the prospect in Delphos as the possibility of erection of a large office building on the Bush site, Main and Third-st, appears assured.

The business site, one of the most important in the city, was sold last week by Charles Busch to Clayton Donze, Lima. Orders to vacate have been issued to present occupants of the block.

E. D. Hardesty, proprietor of the Senator cigar store, occupying that business room on the corner, is preparing to move. A contemplated move to the place formerly occupied by the George Deer poolroom is rumored.

Frank Gier, proprietor of a shoe repair shop, has made no plans. A room in the Fogelin-bldg a few doors south of the Commercial Bank, was held open for him until Tuesday night, but it is now understood that the West Side restaurant, recently established on W. Second-st, will be located there.

Jennie Miller, who conducts dry cleaning and pressing parlors in the Donze-bldg, has made no plans to move.

Donze may also acquire the Charles Riley property adjacent to the Bush site, it is stated. Deal for the frontage has not been closed. It is occupied only by the Meyers dry cleaning and pressing parlors, and a change in location to the business room formerly occupied by the Carl Lang auto supply store, is in contemplation.

F. E. Smith, photographer, has announced the sale of his studio to O. L. Shaw of Lima. He will retire from photography and give his attention to other business, he has announced.

EXPLOITS OF OLD HAND FIRE ENGINE WILL BE RECORDED IN LIBRARY

Exploits of the "Washington No. 1," first fire-fighting engine in Delphos, will be recorded in the historical section at the Delphos Public Library. The old hand-engine is gone. It was purchased years ago by New Bremen, Auglaize-co, but there is a picture of it that will find a resting place in the museum.

It was after the disastrous fire in May of 1872, that the city fathers resolved to better the town's fire-fighting facilities. More than half of Delphos was destroyed on "Black Friday." There was nothing but "water buckets with which to battle the flames."

In the following June officials of the town put thru legislation for purchase of "Washington No. 1." It was at that time the best hand-engine manufactured. It required under ordinary conditions 100 men to operate it.

The engine drew 14 consecutive prizes at firemen's tournaments under leadership of John W. Foley, veteran fire-fighter. At Van Wert, Galion and other places in the state the pumper was supreme until replaced by the steamer.

An ordinary blaze required an entire day's work in those times, for not only was it hard work pumping from the cisterns which then supplied water for fires, but after the flames were extinguished the cisterns had to be re-filled from the Miami & Erie canal.

FRIENDS PLAN AID FOR VICTIM OF FARM BLAZE

Friends of Charles Warnicke, farmer residing a mile and a half east of Delphos, whose home was destroyed by fire Saturday, began Tuesday to take up a collection for him in Delphos business houses.

The Warnicke residence was completely destroyed. Household effects were destroyed. The loss was only partially covered by insurance.

DELPHOS MEN ARE RECOVERING

Three Injured in Toledo Wreck Are Out of Danger

Three Delphos railroad men who were injured shortly after midnight Tuesday when their train, a T. St. L. & W. Railroad extra freight, crashed into a "drag" on the terminal line, three and one-half miles south of Toledo, were reported improved Wednesday, according to members of the families who returned from Toledo Wednesday.

Peter Fuerst, 20, of 625 E. Sixth-st, suffered a broken left leg above the ankle and Arthur W. Thomas, 58, of 517 N. Jefferson-st, a broken left arm, a fracture of the left shoulder and three ribs on his left side were broken. Both are confined to St. Vincent hospital in Toledo. William Cattell, 234 W. Sixth-st, head brakeman, was able to resume his duties Wednesday, having recovered only minor cuts about the face.

According to Conrad Fuerst, father of the injured fireman, their train was just rounding a curve at the time of the crash and young Fuerst was in the act of firing the engine when Thomas saw the train ahead. He set the brakes and called to Fuerst to jump. Both men jumped from the right side of the cab, according to Thomas, and rolled down a 30-foot embankment. Cattell jumped from a car, on level ground, and was only slightly injured.

A few seconds later the crash came. It splintered the caboose and three cars on the "drag" setting fire to them. J. Flickinger, Toledo, conductor on the terminal train, was burned to death in the caboose. Frank Walke, Toledo, suffered internal injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuerst will return to Toledo Thursday morning.

MANY PEOPLE ATTEND CENTENARIAN'S FUNERAL

Many colored people from Lima and surrounding cities attended funeral services for John Gant, Delphos man over 100 years old, Wednesday at 2 p. m. at his home on N. Washington-st. Interment was made in West Side cemetery.

Services for Gant were conducted by Rev. W. A. Deaton, pastor of the Methodist church.

DELPHOS SOCIETY

Regular meeting of the Ursula Cotta society of the Lutheran church met at the home of Mrs. John Miller, E. Fourth-st, Tuesday evening.

The evening was spent in sewing after which a two course lunch was served. Guests at this meeting were Mrs. Emma Trent, Ft. Jennings, and Miss Emma Giesel.

The next meeting will be in one month with Mrs. L. E. Foley, E. Sixth-st.

Miss Monica Burger, N. Pierce-st, entertained the S. U. club Tuesday evening. Cards were played during the forepart of the evening. Miss Olga Fisher received first prize and Miss Edna Lang second.

An interesting contest was held in which Miss Edna Fisher was successful and Miss Olga Fisher was consoled.

A two course lunch was served. The decorations of the table were suggestions of Easter. Little Easter favors were given.

Guests at this meeting were Misses Olga and Edna Fisher, Lima, and Miss Frances Sturgis, of St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Ind.

The next meeting will be in two weeks at the home of Miss Cecelia Bickorn, E. Fifth-st.

Mrs. F. N. Burgess, W. Fifth-st, will entertain the Lat-f-a-lot club Friday evening.

W. B. A. Club girls will be entertained Thursday evening by Miss Olga Miller, E. Sixth-st.

Mrs. Frank Gier, W. Sixth-st, will be hostess to the 1917 club Thursday afternoon.

J. T. club will meet with Mrs. John Best, N. Bredeick-st, Thursday afternoon.

Ladies Aid society of the United Brethren church will hold an all day meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. Arthur Valentine, S. Franklin-st. The ladies will work for the society.

Miss Frances Sturgis, St. Mary's college, Notre Dame, Ind., returned Wednesday after spending a few days with Miss Alice Ricker, E. Fifth-st.

Mrs. Ray Howe, N. Franklin-st, will be hostess to the 1914 Card club, Thursday afternoon.

Smiling Thru club met at the home of Mrs. O. R. Bowsher, S. Main-st, Wednesday afternoon.

Sorosis club will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. George Horine, W. Fifth-st.

Part II of the "Tale of Two Cities" will be the subject for the lesson at this meeting.

Marriage of Miss Marie Grothe, daughter of Mrs. Andrew Grothe, and Harold Bodkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bodkin, will take place at 7 p. m. Wednesday at the parsonage of St. John's Catholic church. Rev. Frederick Rupert will officiate. The groom-to-be is a packing foreman at the Delphos branch of the San Telmo cigar factory. Miss Grothe is employed at the Deisel-Wenmer cigar factory, Delphos.

DELPHOS K. C. INITIATION WILL TAKE PLACE MAY 6; MEMBERS VISIT CARNIVAL

A second change in date for the second and third degree initiation of Delphos council, Knights of Columbus, was announced at a meeting Tuesday night. The date was originally May 6. Later it was changed to April 29 and Tuesday night it was changed back to May 6. Forty or more candidates are expected to be inducted into the order at that time. Ottoville and other outlying communities will supply candidates.

The first degree was conferred upon a class of 12 candidates by a local team composed of Arnold Schmelzer, A. J. Landick, Leonard Weible, Raymond McKown, Lawrence Lang and their aides, Tuesday night.

Preparations for the annual K. of C. home talent show, April 10 and 11 at St. John's auditorium indicate that the 1923 production will be bigger and better than ever before. It was announced.

A Delphos delegation is expected to be in Lima Wednesday night at the K. of C. carnival. It will be "Delphos Night." A vaudeville show and banquet will be given.

ALL BODIES TO REPORT IN CONGREGATIONAL MEET

Reports from every organized line of endeavor of the Delphos Presbyterian church will be received at the annual meeting of the congregation Thursday night in the church rooms. Trustees, those in charge of missionary endeavor and other organizations, will make reports.

The congregation will hear Rev. William Mackay, McConnellsville, first applicant to succeed Rev. George H. Gibson, at services Sunday.

FILMS FAIL TO ARRIVE, SCHOOL SHOW POSTPONED

Due to failure of the films to arrive on time, "Silas Marner," an educational picture scheduled to be presented Tuesday at Delphos high school, was postponed until Wednesday.

A matinee was given at 3:30 p. m. and the evening show will begin at 7:30.

An educational picture, "Terra Cotta," was shown Wednesday morning in the auditorium.

WOMAN'S PLACE HURT BY WAR

Morals Lowered, Noted Feminist Lecturer Believes

ENGLAND NOT HARD HIT

Pleasure-Seeking Class Only Temporary Phase

(BY MILTON BRONNER)

LONDON — (Special) — "Anybody can see the position of women has grown worse since the war. Men are bad enough off—women are worse. There are more of them. And they must fight prejudices, customs, laws, discriminations. Things will get worse before they get better."

That comes from Cicely Hamilton, writer, speaker, actress—and one of the most prominent feminists in Europe.

Her experience as a lecturer before working girls' clubs during the war makes her an authority on Europe's problem of 20,000,000 women of the present generation who will be denied homes and children because there are no husbands for them.

"In England the after-the-war blow has hit women less hard despite the fact that we have two million more women than men," she says.

"We have been used to this. For decades our men have migrated all over the world."

GIRLS TAUGHT TO WORK

"Middle class families' parents recognize the great probability that their girls might not marry. So they educated them to take care of themselves by useful work."

"What English girls long ago learned, the girls of other European nations are now having to learn. But the result everywhere is the same—an overcrowding of the ranks of the work seekers."

"If the various trades unions and similar organizations are wise they will face the facts and join the feminists in their fight for equal pay for equal work."

"If they don't they will put a terrible weapon in the hands of big employers. Because once you get the trades unions definitely aligned against women drawing the same pay as men, you are on the way to destroy men's labor unions. The employers will simply hire women, who are cheaper, more tractable and more easily cowed."

MORALS SINK

"Morals of the after-the-war woman have been definitely lowered. This began during the war. Women who were going to stay at home felt they owed everything to the men who were going into the trenches—and they gave."

"Unfortunately the war also created a huge class of women for whom there was only one word in the dictionary—pleasure. These serving in government bureaus or munition factories, drew double and triple the salaries they could draw in normal times."

"For cost, expensive hats, chocolates, the theatre because in time necessities of their being. They could obtain these things with their own pay envelopes."

"Then came the armistice and discharge from their jobs. Girls were reckless. Restraint was resented and thrown off."

"You see the result in the crowds of fun-seekers who haunt the night restaurants, the night clubs, the cabarets, the jazz palaces in every big European city."

"But, after all, this is only a passing phase."

MOVIES AND RADIO TO ENTERTAIN Y'S MEN CLUB

Movies and a radio program will be special features of the weekly meeting of the Y's Men's club to be held Friday evening. The movies and the radio concert are being furnished by the J. J. Jones company. It is announced.

Election of officers for the remainder of the year and report of progress of the membership campaign will form part of the regular business session.

ARE YOU THE WOMAN YOU WERE MEANT TO BE?

Every woman was meant to be healthy, happy, and fill her sphere in life to the best of her ability; but, alas, how few have the health or physical endurance to live up to their ideals! Over-ambitious, many of them develop nervousness, irritability, headaches, backaches, irregularities, and often more serious ailments which retard their progress in life. Women in this condition should turn to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a root and herb medicine which has been proven to benefit 98 out of every 100 women who try it. Let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound make you well and strong, and the woman you were meant to be.—adv.

HOOVER-BOND COMPANY WILL HOLD A PUBLIC RECEPTION AFTERNOON, EVENING THURSDAYMARKS GRAND OPENING OF MODEL FURNITURE STOREMore Than Five Hundred Visitors
Expected to Attend

MUSIC AND FREE SOUVENIRS

Other Attractions With Big
Special Demonstrations

Tomorrow is the day. Thruout the afternoon and evening a great public reception will be held at the Hoover-Bond company's beautiful palace of home furnishings. Every man and woman in Lima and vicinity is cordially invited to be present.

Music, and favors and many other features including manufacturers' demonstration and special awards will be afternoon and evening attractions. Preparations have been completed to accommodate at least five thousand visitors and to give each and every visitor a beautiful souvenir.

The occasion will be the grand opening of The Hoover-Bond company's remodeled store. Many thousands of dollars have been expended in the past several weeks to make this store one of the very finest in Ohio. In fact the store has been completely remodeled from basement to the top floor and from the gloriously illuminated display windows to the shipping department.

Every department is a feature of grandeur. Nothing has been left undone to make this the most desirable place to buy furnishings for the home. Special demonstrations will be conducted thruout the store by representatives of furniture manufacturers. All that is new in furniture will be shown on the various floors of the store, many attractive new designs in living room, bedroom, dining room, sun-parlor and kitchen furnishings will be on display.

ALL NEW DECORATIONS
In remodeling the Hoover-Bond company's store, special attention has been paid to the decorative effects. Beautiful oil painted paneling carries out the special lighting effect arranged for window displays. The entrances are each artistically protected by art periods designed in wrought iron done by East Brothers. The small cathedral windows on each side of the entrance are similarly arranged. The new and wholly harmonious decorative wall covering was done by Black's wall paper store under the personal supervision of C. C. Black. It is truly a work of art and blends richly as a fitting background for the gorgeous furnishings now being displayed. The exposed wood and metal parts of the display floors are done in old ivory.

EXPERT CHEF HAS CHARGE OF VAPO

An expert chef will be in charge of the cooking demonstration of the Vapo Stove company at Hoover-Bond's Thursday and Friday. Every phase of stove operation in cooking and baking will be shown in detail. The Vapo Stove company, one of those Lima institutions of which Lima people can be justly proud, has a complete line of modern oil stoves, each model of which is now on display at the Hoover-Bond company store.

Those viands, real baked goodies that we so often hear tell about, yet so seldom see or taste, will be turned out before your very eyes and for all you who come to sample.

SALESMEN, REAL
HUMAN BEINGSIntimate Story of Hoover-Bond
Boys Who do Things

PERSONNEL OF ORGANIZATION

Writer Depicts His Impression of Various Individuals

(BY CHAG MACLEY)

The boys back of the guns. Isn't that the most interesting thing to talk about, especially when you want to spring the "spread eagle" stuff and let the folks know you really are somebody? Huh? Well, let me tell you, I could write a whole column about those boys at the Hoover-Bond Company, those real, honest-to-goodness human beings we often refer to in an offhand way as "salesmen."

Yes, indeed, they are human beings. And the gals they have to stand sometimes—say, it would make some of us less human than we sometimes imagine them to be. Fact.

Now there's Don Pence—most folks about Lima have known Don for years, though he is very old at that. Don is a bang-up good salesman and along with that, he is a furniture expert. He knows merchandise and he is frank. If you set your mind on something he knows isn't just the thing you really should have, he will frankly tell you, yes, in a nice way, and you just can't help liking him for it.

And that man yonder—you wouldn't think it, really, but he's the credit manager—and a crackler, jack at it too. Name? C. C. Cook—three C's and an "oak." And believe me, Cookie can hand you aces and spades in salesmanship, too. He knows furniture from A to Z. Here's one credit manager that everybody likes. Meet him, folks. He's really worth while.

That serious countenance individual—yes, over there, that's the most genial, whole-souled young chap you'd care to know. Scott Munkton, a salesman with years of experience. Scott would thrash me if he knew I would write this stuff about him, because he's actually averse to publicity. But let me tell you this. Scott knows furniture and he will help you in your selections.

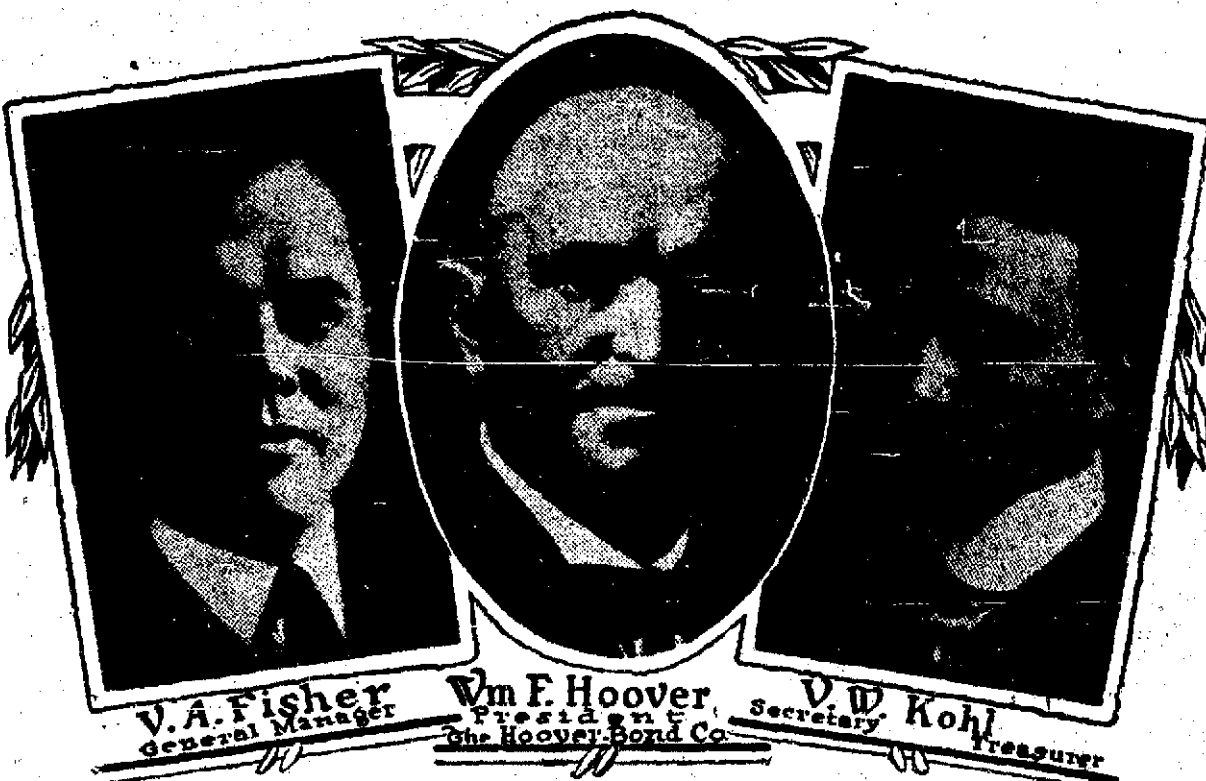

And it won't hurt you a bit to actually know the fellows the world cusses most—the collector and the shipping clerk. The former, R. C. Cook and the latter Al Shindeldecker. Good fellows, both, but with troubles enough to worry an army general. Nevertheless they like their work and the people like them.

Right down the aisle there is the office. Please meet Miss Virginia Brogan, Miss Thelma Strayer and Mary Schullien, the real workers, the office force.

THREE BIG SURPRISES
PLANNED FOR OPENING

One surprise after another awaits those who attend the Hoover-Bond company's grand opening and reception Thursday afternoon and evening. Besides music, souvenirs, and demonstrations, there are three other features which will be announced during the reception. Bash! It's a secret.

Officials of The Hoover-Bond Company

PROPER CARE OF YOUR RUGSSome Timely Hints on How to Keep Rugs Like New

It is a mistake to have the rugs vigorously beaten on cleaning day. The sharp beating with a stick as the rugs hang over a line is very injurious to the fibre, and only thick, cheap rugs, with substantial cotton-woven backs, will stand the treatment. Whacking with the end of the stick is especially inimical to silk oriental rugs or the soft, beautifully woven rugs which are used as couch covers. Such rugs should be well shaken and cleaned with a vacuum cleaner, or a good carpet sweeper, and once a year should be sent to a professional cleaner, who will repair any rents or frayed places in the rug and clean it by special process which brightens the colors without injuring the fibre.

Never wipe off expensive rugs with soap and water, or sprinkle wet tea leaves over them—an old-fashioned cleaning-day custom which may have improved the terrible, flowered carpet of the Victoria period by softening and fading their strenuous colors, but which will do more harm than good to the soft tones of a real oriental rug or an exquisite and modern, subdued coloring. If you must wipe off the rugs with something, use a cloth wrung out in turpentine; but beware of ammonia on soft-lined floor coverings.

A new rug or carpet should not be swept for several weeks, until the pile becomes "set." Old-fashioned housekeepers may tell you to sweep the new rug briskly to "move the fuzz." What you will really be doing will be to sweep out some of the nap and probably injure the surface of the rug. If you must sweep, however, be careful to move the broom with the pile of fabric and not against it.

Now In China

As this edition goes to press W. F. Hoover, president of the Hoover-Bond Company, together with another Lima man, Dan Kirwan, send greetings to their thousands of friends in Lima and vicinity from far-away China. They are making a world tour. "The more we see of the world, the better we like good, old Lima," writes one of the men.

Recently, while in Honolulu, a newspaper there published a half page news story about these two genuine Americans.

NO MERCHANDISE
SOLD THURSDAYStore Open for Reception to the Public Day and Night

No merchandise will be sold in the Hoover-Bond Company's store tomorrow, reception day. It is to be strictly a day for visitors—for people to come and view the new things in home furnishings, to bring their friends and have a jolly good time. This is to be your party.

"We want you to enjoy it. We've planned for weeks to that end, and now we are ready. Tomorrow will be a gala day—make it a holiday. Tado the whole afternoon and evening, come early and stay as late as you wish," said Manager Fisher.

The sales force, for this day, will be at your service in showing you about the store, in giving you any information desired regarding the styles of furniture, harmony in home decorations and furniture arrangement.

Remember, nothing will be sold tomorrow. This is a reception—not a sale.

BETTER HOMES

(BY CALVIN COOLIDGE)

APPARENTLY the world at large, certainly of our own country, is turning more and more for guidance to that wisdom born of affection which we call THE INTUITION OF WOMAN.

"Her first thought is always of the home. Her first care is for its provisions. As our laws and customs are improved by her influence, it is likely to be first in the direction of greater facility for acquiring, and greater security in holding a home."

We spend too much time in longing for the things that are far off and too little in the enjoyment of the things that are near at hand. We live too much in dreams and too little in realities. We cherish too many impossible projects of setting worlds in order which are bound to fail. We consider too little plans for putting our household in order, which might easily be made to succeed. A large part of our seeming ills would be dispelled if we could but turn from the visionary to the practical. We need the influence of vision, we need the inspiring power of ideals but all these are worthless unless they can be translated into positive actions.

Society rests on the home. It is the foundation of our institutions. Around it are gathered all the cherished memories of childhood, the accomplishments of maturity, and the consolation of age. So long as a people hold the home sacred they will be in the possession of strength of character which it will be impossible to destroy.

Under present conditions any ambition of America to become a nation of home owners would be by no means impossible of fulfillment. The land is available, the materials are at hand, the necessary accumulation of credit exists, the courage, the endurance and the sacrifice of the people are not wanting. Let them begin, however slender their means, the building and perfecting of the national character by the building and adorning of a home which shall be worthy of the habitation of an American family, calm in the assurance that "the gods send thread for a web begun."

Here will be found that satisfaction which comes from possession and achievement. Here is the opportunity to express the soul in art. Here is the sacred influence here in the earth at our feet around the hearthstone which raises a man to his true estate.

SALESMEN HAS OWN
SET OF REGULATIONS

Here are a few of the rules that Hoover-Bond salesmen adhere to—all their own rules too—and really good reading in any business:

"Know your stock. Familiarize yourself with goods on display, in warehouses and in the furniture markets. Read our advertisements. "Preserve a cheerful demeanor and be as courteous to your fellow-employees as well as to customers. "Do not correct or laugh at a customer's mispronunciation of an article. "It is to the customer's advantage that you try to sell him the best grade of an article, where several grades are carried. Never misrepresent your goods, or claim for an article merits which you know it does not possess. "We shall at all times accord the same treatment to our patrons that we shall expect to receive ourselves."

PREDICTS GREAT BUSINESS YEAR

Vern Fisher, Manager of Hoover-Bond Stores, interviewed

V. A. Fisher, the genial general manager of the Hoover-Bond Company, has been with the concern for the past eight years. He is now not only general manager of the local store, but of all the allied Hoover-Bond Company stores.

"We predict the biggest business during 1923 of any year in the history of this store," said Mr. Fisher. "We have ample foundation for this prediction in the fact that the first two months of the year a great increase in business over the same period of 1922, the peak of all. We are facing the finest outlook in the history of our stores."

"The fact is that people are coming more and more to realize that character furnishings make the home what it should be—not merely a place to stay, but a place to live. Modern furniture is built with that idea foremost. First, quality in construction; second, comfort; third harmony in decorative effects, color combinations and household arrangement. The store that does not take all these things into consideration is falling far short of the things it should try to accomplish. It has been our aim even in our scheme of remodeling to carry out these ideals in minute detail."

UNIQUE LIGHTING FOR DISPLAY IN WINDOWS

Inaugurating a new system lighting and decorating, the Hoover-Bond company is the first in the city to utilize this new method of electrifying the color scheme. The system was installed by Wentworth-Doan Electric company.

On Saturday night two weeks ago the windows were decorated and lighted for the first time since the remodeling of the store began. The thousands who viewed the windows were profuse in their praise of the beauty and simplicity.

By the new lighting method, any one of five color schemes may be obtained thru the use of glass slides which operate over the hidden reflectors.

FURNITURE "KING"
IS HOOVERReproduction of News Item from Lima News of 1918

A FURNITURE MAN 35 YEARS

Founded the Hoover-Bond Company Fifteen Years Ago

The following news item, appearing in the Lima News of September 5, 1918, together with a half-ton photograph of W. F. Hoover, is worthy of reproduction:

"William E. Hoover, the furniture king, with a string of stores that are real merchandising peers distributed over prosperous cities of Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, has just celebrated his 35th anniversary as a furniture man in the activities of Lima retail trade."

"Back in 1888, on the date of August 28, the firm of Hoover Bros. was formed, its personnel being John, Billie, Lewis and Henry Hoover. Of the four, Billie is the only survivor, the three brothers having answered the Last Call."

"Hoover Bros. purchased the old Mosier-Deakin stock, located in the same room occupied by the great Hoover-Bond company (just north of the present location.) The firm continued 10 years as Hoover Bros. and then became known as The Hoover-Bond Company."

"In 1913 this corporation enlarged and became one of the largest furniture syndicates in the United States, controlling 23 stores in as many cities. Billie Hoover is the pioneer furniture king of Lima, and the oldest business man in point of service in the city, with the exception of N. L. Michael, the premier clothier. And Billie is a decidedly young man in years at that."

VAL KOHL AS OFFICIAL OF HOOVER-BOND STORE

Many of the people who have been patrons of the Hoover-Bond Company have never met one of the leading factors of the official personnel of the organization—V. W. Kohl, secretary-treasurer of the company.

Mr. Kohl has charge of the office management, and while seldom on the salesroom floor, has every phase of the great business, even to the minute details, constantly systematized. There isn't any part of the business from day to day, month to month and year to year, that hasn't pigeon-holed either in his efficient mind-map or in instant access in his systematic method of office management.

Mr. Kohl has been in the furniture business with the Hoover-Bond Company for the past six years and has had actual experience in every department of the business.

MODERN METHOD MERCHANDISING

Number of Conducting Stores
Few Years Ago and Now

During the past quarter century there has been a vast change in the method of furniture merchandising. The changes that have taken place in the style of home furnishings, the new methods that have supplanted the old in the art of furniture manufacture are nothing as compared to the tremendous difference in merchandising methods today against those of a comparatively few years ago.

The up-to-the-minute furniture store of today considers the satisfaction of the customer FIRST, where for many years, the store was merely a place where furniture was kept for sale—and in those days furniture was just furniture.

Following out the idea that good furniture will make a home a really worth while place to live and that good furniture has its place in the making of better men and women, actually moulding lives, as it were, there has been a steady evolution to the present ideal.

Today a suite of furniture must possess character, it must possess individuality, beauty, charm, and above all else genuine homey comfort with a stability that is lasting. Often we hear the expression, "Those were the good old days." Those words are not spoken of furniture, for furniture and furniture ideals have so far advanced, even in the last decade, that home building and home furnishing must be an accomplishment with every one of us. We MUST know these things, else we are relegated to the realm of the "has been's" and have no place in modern society.

With all the advance and progress that science and invention have brought to or very door, it is barbarism, nothing less, not to have a well-furnished home in keeping with the surroundings. And a well-furnished home does not necessarily mean a vast expenditure, for a comparatively small amount of money will furnish the average home completely, comfortably and in perfect style.

GOOD FURNITURE DOES MORE THAN FURNISH HOMES

Good furniture, carefully selected, will give your home that grandeur one dreams of in palaces—it will actually transform your home and in no small measure help to mould your lives toward better things.

BASIS OF SUCCESS

Good will—the fundamental basis, the corner stone of the success of any business. And it is the goodwill of the people of Lima and vicinity that The Hoover-Bond Company cherishes most. It is on this principle that the company has been able to attain its present high standing in the community and on this it hopes to further increase its business in the future.

Service to the patron after the sale as well as while the sale is being made—that's Hoover-Bond policy.

One of the fundamentals of the Hoover-Bond company has been to always make sure that the patron is entirely satisfied with the purchase. Courteous treatment when you visit the store, whether you buy or not; prompt and satisfactory service in making deliveries; and carrying in stock only those articles of home-furnishings which the company believes are fully worth the price asked have been other features that have made this great Lima store one of the largest in volume of sales in northwestern Ohio.

Complete
VAPO
Cooker Line

Has no wicks to trim, no smoke, no soot and no odor
---a stove that turns kerosene oil or gasoline into a clean, dry gas and operates like a gas stove.

The VAPO stove will burn 32 to 36 hours on one gallon of fuel, to a burner, giving you from 40% to 50% more cooking heat than any other oil cooker on the market today.

It has automatic locking valve which insures safety, convenience and economy.

Large grates comprise the cooking top, with no solid metal between grates, permitting a greater distribution of heat.

It fits flat to the wall, thus taking up less space.

The fuel tank is arranged in the back of the Cooker in the upper right corner, safely out of sight.

The upper shelf is set high, permitting the use of a wash boiler. It also sets back, out of the way of the cooking.

The portable oven is so arranged that it does not cover the entire cooking space, still leaving two burners for other needs.

The ball feet makes the VAPO easy to move.

This stove is so built that it is very easy to clean.

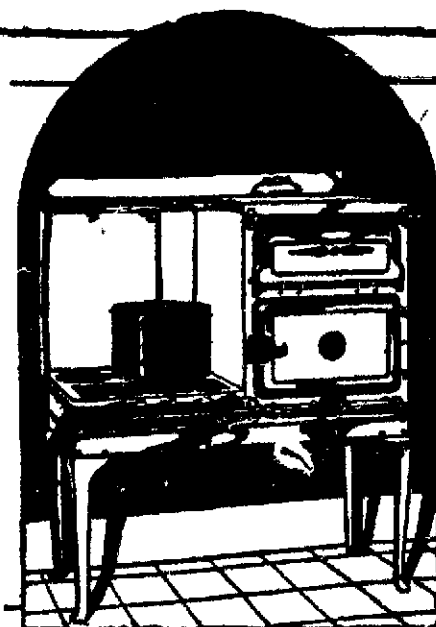

Built sturdily, all parts exceeding strong and substantial, the VAPO is constructed for long life. It is a stove of exceptional merit and will help a good cook to be a better one.

Visit the demonstration every day this week at the Hoover-Bond company.

The Chambers Hood, showing construction and the thorough insulation.

The Chambers Oven, showing construction and thickness of insulation.

The Chambers way of cooking does more than save precious time; it gives you wholesome, appetizing food with about half the gas used in an ordinary range. The Chambers oven roasts meats and fowl and bakes bread, cake and pies; the hood boils vegetables, cereals, pot-roasts—all with the gas turned off most of the time.

Cuts the Gas Bill in Half. The additional cost of the Chambers Range soon comes back in the saving in gas. You save 70% gas in roasting, baking and boiling, and on a monthly average you can cut your gas bill in half.

There's a size for every kitchen—beautiful, new models in all-white, and black and white.

Only $10 down! An initial payment of $10 puts this wonderful range in your kitchen. The remainder can be paid in easy monthly payments. Why go on cooking the old, inefficient way?

NEW FURNITURE New Living Room Furniture EXHIBITION

Presentation of Model Showing at Hoover-Bond Co.

A model exhibit of modern furnishings, a very worthy showing of what one might expect to find in visiting the furniture markets of Chicago and Grand Rapids—that's the promise of The Hoover-Bond Company to those who attend the grand opening and reception Thursday afternoon and evening.

On every floor one will find new, modern furniture, the select of the better suites in living room numbers, luxurious davenport and chairs, exquisite lamps, beautiful console, davenport and library tables, dining room furniture with an elegance and beauty that would please Queens; sun parlor furniture in every desired design; breakfast room suites with distinctive character; bedroom suites that are simply gorgeous; and complete kitchen outfits from the most efficient kitchen cabinet, the new improved refrigeration systems and the complete line of gas, combination and oil ranges to the most modern floor coverings.

On the main floor are shown the living room and dining room suites, with breakfast room suites under the balcony. Cedar chests are displayed on the balcony. On the second floor are sun parlor suites, more living room suites, the complete bedroom furnishings and a wonderful display of rugs. In the basement department are stoves, ranges, linoleums, kitchen cabinets, refrigerators, etc. Here is assembled a remarkably complete representation of the best of the furniture manufacturers of the country produce. Men and women who visit the Hoover-Bond Company's store on reception day will be amply repaid for their having come by the good they will get from viewing the furniture styles and home arrangement suggestions, if from nothing more. But there will be more than this to pay you for having come. Music, flowers, factory demonstrations and several other features which the management is not going to announce until Thursday afternoon and evening.

NEVER TACK RUGS TO THE FLOOR IS ADVICE

Rugs should never be tacked down. If, in certain places in the room they are apt to be rolled back or pushed about, attach bits of black tape with snap fasteners at the end of the rug, under the fringe, and twin snap fasteners to bats of black tape may be tacked to the floor. The rugs may be taken up easily on sweeping day, and the small tacks which hold the bits of tape to the floor will not cause injury even to a hardwood surface.

Above is illustrated one of the new type of living room suites designed and manufactured by Karpen's, Chicago and New York, and now on display at The Hoover-Bond company's store.

BUYING POWER OF THE HOOVER-BOND STORES

One of the really worth while reasons why people should consider the Hoover-Bond Company in buying their home furnishings is the fact that the Lima store is one of a chain of stores with the combined buying power of all. This means a tremendous saving on a year's business and this savings is handed down to the customers of the Hoover-Bond stores, whether it be in Lima, Kalamazoo or some other city.

There is much human life in the saving that variety is the spice of life. The average man and woman is fond of occasional change of scene. Possibly the strenuous life that has shaped the habits of the people of this fast moving country is responsible for the highly strung, nervous organization that demands scenes.

EMPHASIZES LIVING ROOM

There's as Much Art in Selecting Furniture as Designing

(By Matlick Price)

A Recognized Authority on Home
Furnishings.

SOMETIMES it has seemed to me that there is as much art in selecting furniture as there is in the designing of it—yet the question is simply one of good taste, plus a little knowledge. It is not even a question of money. I have never advised anyone to buy a certain kind of furniture because it is a fad or fashion of the hour, but rather to make selections on the basis of good lines, good workmanship and finish, good upholstery, and a fair price. Furniture which is extremely cheap is never an economical purchase, and I have always said that the ideal way to acquire furniture is to pick up a few pieces at a time, with careful thought to the intrinsic value of each piece, its relation to other pieces and its proper placing. By spending a little money wisely, results of individuality and charm may be readily attained in furnishing the home. In looking at the new pieces displayed at the Karpen showroom in New York, I felt that the collection not only exemplified the essentials of good taste and a high standard of workmanship, but also presented a variety wide enough to provide for every possible furniture need in the entrance hall, living room, sunporch, or living hall.

One important thought about new furniture for the home should be borne in mind: the expression of good taste, and acquiring of well-made furniture of permanent worth—which is also pleasant to live with and comfortable to use—is not proportional to the amount of money spent, if the expenditure is made with a well-conceived plan to what pieces are wanted.

Above all, I would repeat—cheap furniture is never an economical purchase.

LIVING ROOMS
THAT ARE COMFORTABLE

THE living room, the heart of the home, is the room which everyone visualizes as the place for ease, comfort and relaxation, pleasing to the eye and restful to the body. The most attractive living rooms I have even seen are the ones which have been furnished with informality plus good taste, and true ideal is achieved when personality is also expressed.

As a guide to the selection of living room furniture, I have always advised the planning and arrangement of several distinct groups, each complete in itself, but all related to the general scheme—such as fireplace grouping, a corner where one's writing desk is the center of interest, and a nook devoted to the lover of books.

Nothing makes the living room less livable than a formal and uncomfortable arrangement of furniture. The grouping of furniture should suggest and invite afternoon tea, conversation and quiet hours with favorite books for the living room is not a show room but a room in which to live.

Points I regard as essential in the selection of living room furniture, in addition to good design and construction, are a general similarity in character and finish, and a sense of harmony in the colorings. There should be no obstructive colors and no useless furniture.

Many people do not realize what a delightful transformation may be made in a poorly furnished living room at almost imperceptible cost, by a gradual replacement of worn out or inharmonious pieces with new and attractive ones. With a plan for replacement carefully worked out, and even one new piece a month provided for in the household budget, the end of one year will see an almost unbelievable transformation. It is better to spend a year transforming your living room from an unsatisfactory makeshift into the one you always idealized, than to leave it as it is through a mistaken idea as to the cost involved.

HOSPITALITY HALLWAY

I HAVE often thought that the hallway offers many opportunities which are frequently overlooked by home furnishers—and the first of these is hospitality. The hallway, whether large or small, should both look and be inviting, and as it gives the visitor the first impression of the house, it should be in good taste and in a gracious blend of the formal and the informal. If it leans one way or the other, it is better to express formality, in order that the more intimate rooms of the house may thus give, by contrast, the greater expression of personality and informality.

There are so many different types of hallways, from the extremely small one to the "living hall" sort, that I cannot feel it wise to attempt to make specific suggestions. Certainly the effect of hospitality is more directly conveyed, if there is sufficient room, by the use of comfortable chairs or a sofa.

THE "OPEN PORCH" AND "SUN ROOM"

THE open porch, or the glassed-in porch which is the "sun-room" in winter, are favorite gathering places of family and guests in the modern home.

The pleasant art of living out-of-doors or "nearest the sun" has developed a wide variety of graceful and informal pieces of furniture, wrought of fiber and finished in different color schemes, admirably adapting them to the breakfast room, sun-room or open porch.

FURNITURE HELPS MAKE A HOMEHow to Buy Good Furniture Without Big Expenditure

Home's not merely four square walls gilded and hung with pictures grand.

Home is where the heart is. Home is where affection calls. Good furniture, not necessarily expensive, makes home a really worth while place to live in. Perhaps we cannot see the expenditure at this time, anticipating the total cost of an entire house full, but there's a genuine pleasure to be had in adding a piece of furniture here and there at different times. This will do away with the necessity of investing a great deal of money at one time and will still keep the home looking brighter and brighter until all new furniture replaces the old.

What a wonderful comfort is a neatly, comfortably furnished home, whether it be only a couple of rooms or a mansion. When one buys new furniture, special care should be exercised in selecting pieces that harmonize, that are built to give real service, and that lend that appearance and actual comfort which only good furniture can give.

COUNTY-WIDE DRIVE ON UNLICENSED DOGS STILL
ON; 3,000 SECURE TAGS

County canvass for unlicensed dogs met with only fair success, reports made by deputy collectors to Sheriff Harvey B. Crosson indicate.
Monday and Tuesday were spent in various towns about the county to allow dog owners to come in and pay their tax. Scarcely 50 applications were received.

The announcement, however, had the effect of stimulating sales of tags at the county auditor's office.
Approximately 40 owners visited the office Monday and Tuesday and bought tags.

Sheriff Crosson will follow up the collectors with a crew of dog catchers headed by Frank Kilman, humane officer. The dog catcher will have a large truck for transporting their prey, Crosson said.

Captured canines will be impounded and held for several days and then destroyed.
Sale of tags to owners has reached an approximate total of 3,000.

ROME IS STIRRED BY EXECUTION OF PRIEST

ROME—News of the execution of Monsignor Budkevick, Roman Catholic prelate, by a Russian firing squad caused a tremendous sensation at the Vatican.

Up to the last minute Pope Pius was of the belief that the vicar-general's life would be spared in the circles that the death sentence was to be postponed and later commuted to imprisonment in exile.

Pope Pius, it is now learned, spared no effort to save Budkevick's life. It is understood the Russian appeal in gratitude for what the latter did for starving Russians in the famine days.

THREE PRISONERS UNDER SENTENCE WILL LEAVE
COUNTY JAIL THURSDAY

Three prisoners will leave Allen-co jail Thursday for new homes.
They are Willis Hardin, colored and Frank Stevens, white, convicted of robbing D. O. Bashore, of 37
1-2 Public Sq., and Virgil Dackin, 18,
"Sheik" bandit, convicted of robbing Henry Evans, S. Main-st baker.

Willis and Stevens were sentenced by Judge Buckner to serve two years in Ohio state penitentiary. Dackin was sentenced to the Mansfield reformatory after he had pleaded guilty to robbery.

Ruth Hardin, creole wife of Willis Hardin, an accomplice in the robbery of Bashore, was sentenced to Marysville reformatory for an indeterminate sentence.

Alva Klinginger, who pleaded guilty on a larceny charge, was sentenced by the court to 30 days in the county jail.

ELECTIC MEDICAL BODY
TO MEET HERE MAY 22-23

Ohio State Electric Medical association will hold its annual convention at Lima, May 22 and 23, at the Argonne hotel.

Dr. W. H. Carey, of Bellefontaine, president of the association, has concluded arrangements with Dr.
Charles Clark, superintendent of the Lima state hospital, for a session of the attending physicians at the state hospital in the morning of May 23.
It is announced.

Complete plans for the program of the two days meeting have not been made public.

MUTT, LOAN ME A HALF-PENNY!

GLADLY, AND MAY I INQUIRE WHAT YOU ARE GONNA DO WITH SO MUCH MONEY?

I'M GONNA GO TO A CHEMIST ON THE STRAND AND BUY SOME HAIR TONIC!

A LOT OF GOOD A HALF-PENNY'S WORTH OF HAIR TONIC WILL DO YOU!

I DON'T WANT IT FOR MYSELF!

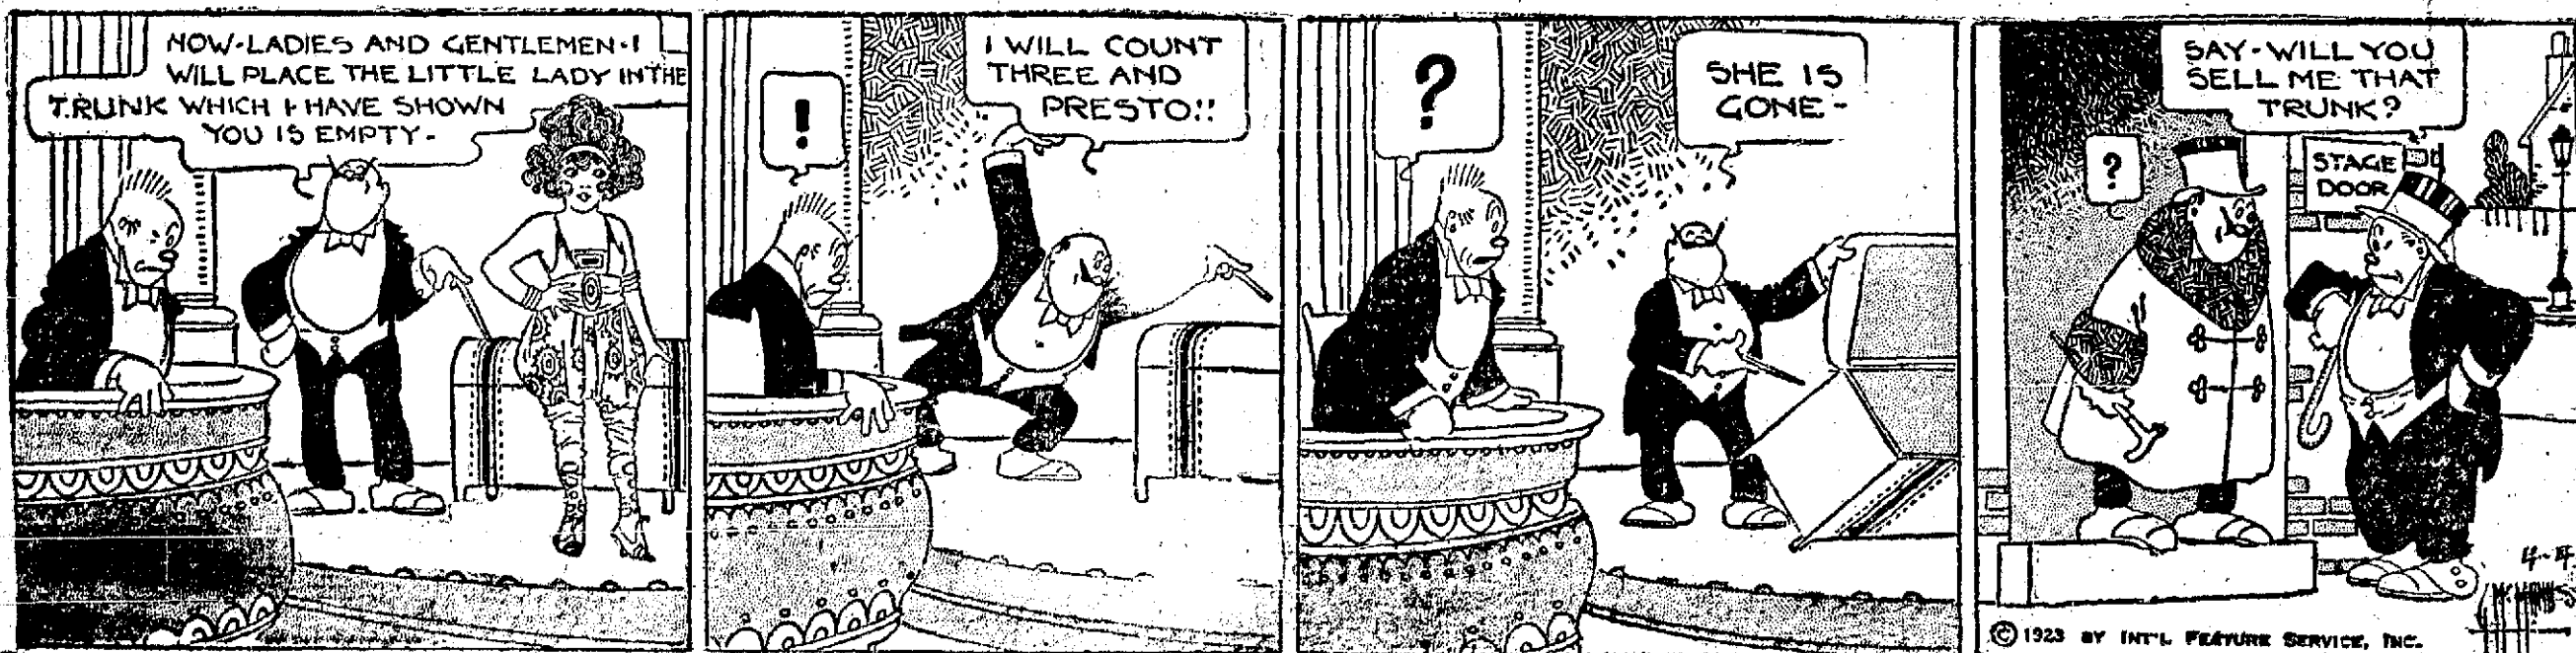

OH, I SUPPOSE YOU'RE GONNA RESTORE THE EYEBROWS ON A FLEA THEN!

YOU ASK MORE FOOL QUESTIONS, BUT IF YOU MUST KNOW I'M GONNA FIX MY WATCH!

FIX YOUR WATCH WITH HAIR TONIC?

YES, I THINK THERE'S A SPECK OF DANDRUFF IN THE HAIR-SPRING!
